BODY OF MISSING AIR MAIL PILOT FOUND NEAR POLK

'S TIME DEMOCRATS LEARNED TO WRITE, SAYS WILL ROGERS

(Special To The News)

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—The Literary Digest is taking a poll to see how many people there are in the United States who are interested in politics that can write their name. Up to now there has been a third more Republicans that can write than Democrats.

Course when election day comes and all you have to do is make your mark, why I think the Democratic total will pick up.

Republicans have to learn to write on account of signing checks, but Democrats never have to be bothered with that.

Yours,
WILL ROGERS.

P. S.—Only two more weeks for Coolidge to decide who to come out for.

PA NEWC OBSERVES

While many events at The Cathedral result in streets for blocks around being used for parking space for autos, it is believed that last night broke all records. Almost every available parking space on streets from Washington street to four or five blocks north of the Cathedral was used for auto parking. Where the usual downtown parking ended it was taken up by autos whose owners were at the Cathedral and streets in every direction were in use as parking space. One estimate was that there were 2,500 autos parked in the area last night.

Ellwood-New Castle road users are gratified that the detour on the road just outside the city of New Castle is being removed today or will be removed tomorrow. The mile of new concrete that replaces the old macadam stretch on the highway is a big improvement and the detour was not so enjoyable in muddy weather.

Governor John S. Fisher's local declaration that there is a tidal wave of support sweeping to Herbert Hoover in the presidential campaign and that election of the Republican party candidate is indicated by an overwhelming majority is another emphasis to the sentiment that is being found broadcast over the country. Everywhere is found the belief that Hoover will win by a substantial majority.

Youths of New Castle who are inclined to tamper with fire alarm boxes should take warning from the trouble into which three young men of this city have found themselves as a result of sending in false alarms. They must face a jury trial in court in December. Sending in a false alarm of fire is a serious thing and not to be treated lightly. Fire alarm boxes are for use in emergencies and not for playing pranks.

A look at the windows of the stores in New Castle would indicate that Hallowe'en is approaching. Many have pumpkin decorations sprinkled in a window chock full of corn shocks and some of the efforts are beautiful.

The old days of Hallowe'en. Pa Newc remembers when he speaks of Hallowe'en are gone. In the country districts, plows, harrows and wheel-barows were on house tops and wagons and buggies were hauled miles away. At times an owner might not find the wheel of his best Sunday buggy for six months. The new cement highways have also done away with the fences being strewn across the roads to stop buggy riding sweethearts, and besides there are no rail fences to speak of.

Rumor hath it in Pa Newc's ears that the famous Kid McCoy is now living in the little village of Harrisville above Slippery Rock. Mebbe so. He's a fighter and a soul saver. Take your choice.

People will never come to the stage of rushing around as some say the modern era do, to neglect watching anything that is being done in a public place. When buildings are erected as you perhaps noticed this summer,

Air Mail Pilot Found Dead In Wrecked Plane

New York-Cleveland Air Mail Pilot Is Found Burned To Death At Polk, Pa.

SEARCHING PARTY DISCOVERS BODY

Believe Plane Was Fired In Mid-Air; Falls Into Dense Woods

(International News Service)

POLK, Pa., Oct. 19.—A lone mail plane circled high over Bear Hollow, near here, while the body of William C. (Wild Bill) Hopson, New York-to-Cleveland air mail pilot, lay crushed and charred amid the wreckage of his plane, which plunged into the woods here in flames and was found early today.

Hopson's plane, missing since early yesterday morning when he lost his bearings in fog and storm, apparently crashed into a thicket in flames, for the body was found crushed and charred seated in the cockpit while the engine of the plane was found more than fifty feet from the rest of the plane. Mail, some of it burned, was scattered around for a considerable distance.

Mistook Flares

The three man searching party which found the body made no effort to move it, nor did officials from Clarion Airport, who arrived a short time later. They waited the arrival of Coroner John Osenider, of Oil City.

It is now believed that Ross Perry and J. C. Hayes, two of the men who found the body mistook for signal flares the glare of the burning fusilage as the mail plane and its 1,000 pound cargo plunged into the trees of Bear Hollow.

Hopson was due in Cleveland about 3 a. m. yesterday, and when he failed to put in his appearance, radio and a plane from the Clarion Airport were used in the search for him.

The place where the body was found, in a secluded Venango county

Hoover Greets Commander Of Graf Zeppelin

Republican Party Candidate Congratulates Leader Of Zeppelin Crew

HOOVER WORKING ON NEW YORK ADDRESS

May Stop At St. Louis To Make Address In Trip To California To Vote

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Laying aside his political problems for the moment, Herbert Hoover today participated in the national capital's ovation to the crew of the trans-Atlantic dirigible, Graf Zeppelin.

Led by Dr. Hugo Eckener, commander of the airship, the Zeppelin crew, called on Hoover at his headquarters following their breakfast with President Coolidge. The Republican nominee warmly congratulated the German visitors on the courage and daring of their trans-Atlantic flight.

Sees Peace Mission

In a letter to Eckener Hoover expressed the opinion that dirigibles of the type of the Graf Zeppelin will have a greater peace mission in the future than in military maneuvers. He cited their value to travel and commerce over long distances, and, as a humanitarian, suggested they could be used to open quick communi-

New Castle And Ellwood Election Precincts Need Complete Re-districting

Extensive re-districting of the election precincts of both New Castle and Ellwood City are likely to be undertaken following the coming election. The matter was discussed informally by the county commissioners and their attorney, John P. Lockhart, this morning. The situation in the fourth precinct of the second ward is recognized to be the worst in the city, but there are a number of other precincts that are considered entirely too large.

Ellwood Situation.

Attorney M. J. Kraus, who was present, brought the condition in Ellwood City to the attention of the commissioners. There are two precincts in Ellwood City that are very large. One has over 1100 voters registered and the other 1250, which makes it larger than the crowded district in the second ward. Attorney Kraus was of the opinion that the whole of Ellwood City should be redistricted.

At the November election it is going to be a serious matter to take care of the two big precincts in Ellwood and the fourth of the second ward, New Castle. Commissioners have arranged to place all the booths which the election rooms will accommodate. They want to impress on voters of all three precincts that only by getting to the polls early, and by thoroughly understanding the ticket before they enter the booths, can there be any hope of polling the registered vote.

It is probable that immediately after the election steps will be taken toward re-districting, in order that it may be accomplished before the next election.

Scottish Rite Reunion Will Conclude Today

GOVERNOR FISHER AT SESSION TODAY

With the semi-annual reunion of the Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite going into its closing sessions today, there seems little doubt that this reunion has overshadowed all such previous events. Commander-in-Chief William H. Dunlap has expressed himself as supremely satisfied with the outstanding success of this reunion and that satisfaction is echoed among the membership.

The dinner in the Cathedral Thursday evening surpassed in numbers any previous occasion of the kind the only other dinner in the history comparable to the dinner of last night being the Community dinner which opened the Cathedral when 2,600 were fed at one time. A total of 3,000 were fed Thursday evening but only 2,500 sat down at one time.

Governor Still Here.

Governor John S. Fisher is still in the city and today is taking the last degree of the New Castle Consistory.

Will Remove Rosena Dam

Steel Company Willing To Have Dam Removed From Neshannock

AGREEMENT WILL BE MADE BY CITY

Local officials of the Carnegie Steel company today through a communication advised council that the company would have no objection to the removal of the Rosena dam, Neshannock creek, providing the removal be made without cost to the company.

Council referred the communication to the legal department and Solicitor White has been requested to prepare an agreement between the two parties.

Councilman Tyler conferred with steel company officials when he learned the state waterways commission had ordered the dredging of the Neshannock stream at a point where the bridge is to be located—Neshannock and Croton avenues.

He believed he said that the removal of the dam would alleviate the dredging and if not all of it a large part of it which would be a economical move by the city.

He had no companions.

Fear That Commander MacDonald Has Been Forced Down In Atlantic

ONE SHIP REPORTS SIGHTING FLIER

Missing Over 50 Hours Now; Plane Fueled For Only 20 Hours

(International News Service)

CROYDON, Eng., Oct. 19.—That Commander H. C. MacDonald has joined that ghostly escadrille of those who yielded up their lives in attempts to span the Atlantic by airplane was the belief forced today upon Croydon airdrome and air ministry officials.

MacDonald this morning had been missing nearly 50 hours, whereas his machine was fueled for only about 20 hours. He was approximately 30 hours overdue at this airport, where he had expected to land.

No Word Received

The radio station at Valentia, Irish Free State, reported at 1:30 p. m. that no word had been received concerning MacDonald. Only one ship reported sighting the flyer after he left Harbor Grace on Thursday afternoon. That was a Dutch steamer, which claimed to have sighted a plane between 600 and 700 miles northeast of St. Johns, N. F., shortly after midnight yesterday morning.

It is feared here that MacDonald lost his course and that his frail moth plane was forced down at sea.

Hallowe'en Plans Are Announced

Ivor V. Davis Is Named As General Chairman For Event

MUMMERS' PARADE WILL BE ARRANGED

Following the custom of many years New Castle will have a community Hallowe'en celebration this year, the date being set this morning by the committee of the Chamber of Commerce for Wednesday evening October 31.

In previous years the parade end of the celebration has been handled by members of the American Legion. This year the committee felt that it would be fitting to show the appreciation of the efforts of former years by asking some member of the Legion to assume charge as general chairman of the entire celebration.

Ivor V. Davis Accepts.

Ivor V. Davis, post commander of the American Legion was asked if he would accept the general chairmanship and as usual when he has been asked to take over civic work he accepted. No other committees were named by the Chamber of Commerce today as the committee felt that Mr. Davis should have a wide latitude in selecting his own. He will announce his appointments later.

The celebration which will be largely a Mummer's Parade will open

Say Hickman Was In State Of Collapse

(International News Service)

SAN QUENTIN PRISON, Cal., Oct. 19.—William Edward Hickman was in a state of collapse when he was hanged here at 10:10 o'clock this morning for the kidnaping and murder of 12-year-old Marion Parker of Los Angeles. Veteran guards made this declaration after the hanging although spectators who watched every detail believed that when Hickman's legs gave way it was because the trap had been sprung and the weight of his body crumpled his limbs. Two men fainted at the conclusion of the execution.

SAN QUENTIN PRISON, Cal., Oct. 19.—William Edward Hickman, 21, kidnapper and brutal murderer of 12-year-old Marion Parker of Los Angeles, paid for his crime with his life on the gallows of the state prison here today at 10:10 a. m.

More than 200 persons "invited" by the state, witnessed his execution, and more than 5,000 applications for invitations were denied because of lack of space in the death chamber.

The youthful kidnaper-slayer, who during the night had calmly told to his death guards the story of his crime, read his Bible and played his phonograph, prepared for his death calmly. Two hours before his execution he made his last confession to his spiritual adviser, Father Fleming, and received the last communion.

Following the religious rites he partook of a hearty breakfast, the menu of which included ham and eggs, potatoes, grapefruit, cereal, waffles, rolls and coffee.

Twenty-two seconds after he had entered the death chamber the noose had been adjusted and the trap was sprung.

Buoyed up by religious ecstacy, Hickman walked with firm tread up the fatal 13 steps of the light green scaffold.

Pronounced Dead.

Hickman was pronounced dead at 10:25 o'clock by Dr. Ralph Blecker and Dr. L. L. Robinson of the prison staff exactly 15 minutes after the trap had been sprung.

Detective Dick Lucas, veteran Los Angeles police officer, who obtained Hickman's confession after the crime, fainted immediately after the execution.

Three Thousand Dine On Thursday Evening At Cathedral Dinner

In the past ten years C. Ed. Brown has handled many banquets and dinners, but the peak of his career as a banquet executive was reached on Thursday evening when 3,000 members of the Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite were fed, with no delay and a minimum of confusion.

Because of the presence of Governor John S. Fisher and other officials, it was expected that there would be a crowd and those expectations were surpassed. Every available inch of space was used in the main dining hall, the east and west dining halls, and the ball room. The first table saw 2,500 men seated and within a remarkably short time they were all fed with warm dinners.

The women of the Highland United Presbyterian church served the meal, three hundred of them being on duty. To provide food for the crowd meant 1800 pounds of meat, 100 gallons of coffee, 6000 rolls, 100 loaves of bread, and all of the other articles in proportion.

It was a splendid piece of work.

U. P. Church School Closes

Last Session Of Successful Four-Day Institute Well Attended

TWO CONFERENCES THURSDAY EVENING

Nearly 225 persons were in attendance at the fourth and final session of the United Presbyterian workers' conference held Thursday night in the Highland U. P. church, corner of Highland and Park avenues. The meeting marked the close of the most successful and best attended meetings of this kind yet offered by the U. P. churches of this city.

Dr. A. J. Randles, pastor of the Second U. P. church on County Line street, delivered the address at the general session on "The Methods of Visitation Evangelism." Throughout the week ministers of the four local congregations have been basing their themes on the visitation evangelism subject, each discussing a different phase of the topic each night. Dr. Randles' address was interesting and inspirational and thoroughly enjoyed by the audience.

Two group conferences of Bible school and young people's workers were presided over by J. Brad Craig, U. P. Bible school secretary, and Miss Bertha Dodds, missionary secretary of the Beaver Valley Young People's Christian Union, respectively. Problems pertaining to Bible school work were discussed pro and con in the Sabbath school session while work of the citizenship and recreational committees of a Y. P. C. U. organization occupied the time of the young people.

The conferences closed at 9:30 p. m. and ended what is considered the most enthusiastic workers' instruction conferences of local churches. The four United Presbyterian pastors, Rev. S. B. Copeland, Dr. A. J. Randles, Dr. S. E. Irvine and Dr. C. J. Williamson, together with Miss Myrtle Patterson of Beaver, the president of the Y. P. C. U. organization of Beaver Valley, J. Brad Craig of Beaver and Mrs. A. J. Randles and Mrs. Margaret Hanna who conducted the missionary meeting, were in a large way responsible for the success of the conference.

her mother, Mrs. Harriet Carey, who was riding in the rear seat, and her uncle, B. T. Carey, of Enon Valley, who was riding beside her. An ambulance was called and her injured relatives rushed to the Shenango Valley hospital. Mrs. Hillman escaped injury.

Statements Conflict

Mrs. Ed. Lynch in her report of the accident states that she was driving south on Albert street at Sheridan avenue. She was driving slowly and noticed the Hillman car going west on Sheridan avenue. Believing that the Hillman car was going to stop for the stop sign, she figured to let the Hillman car cross Albert before she attempted to cross Sheridan avenue.

Mrs. Hillman, however, according to Mrs. Lynch, continued on through the intersection at a considerable rate of speed and she was unable to avoid the collision. Her car, she said, struck the Hillman car near the right center. The Hillman car swerved and upset beyond the intersection of Albert street on Sheridan avenue.

Mrs. Lynch states that her two small children were with her and were not badly shaken in the impact of the machines.

Detective John Young and Officer Thomas Lynch were detailed on the accident as soon as the call was received.

people stand about and witch idly. Yesterday afternoon some concrete was being laid in the form of a sidewalk on the Diamond and a crowd had gathered around, merely to gaze on. S'funny.

It is nearing the time when young men's suits will be on wrong parties and young men will almost have to cavort in barrels. Hallowe'en time always brings a score of parties maskay and 99 out of 100 girls want to dress as a "fella" and go. What the kick is Pa Newc doesn't know, but two of his suits are on the list as well as a couple of shirts and loud suspenders so if you see a shame faced gentleman wearing a barrel next week you will know who it is.

Pa Newc observes: Giant police dog walking up Washington street unhampered by any chain. Ladies looked askance and sidestepped; much must be publicity these days about men wearing garters which isn't so; old gentleman standing in street corner reading a book; little chaps going to school wearing campaign buttons; and people trying to get a glimpse of the governor.

Watch your step if you drive the road to Bessemer. The state highway seems to be unmarked at the railroad crossing and curve in the region of the Golden Dale creamery near Bessemer and if you're stepping in the darkness you're liable as not to go scooting on down the railroad tracks instead of making the bend.

New Castle came near losing a down town business man which every one knows, yesterday. At least that's the report to Pa Newc's ears. He very kindly proferred a fag to a reporter and the news dog later discovered to his sorrow that it was planted with a rubber band. The reporter is hoping to be heard murmuring "Vengeance is sweet" before many moons.

It seems to Pa Newc that there should be more glaring signs stating where left hand turns are not allowed. Many cities permit the semi-circle and then the left swing when the light changes which we do not. Pa Newc has observed many apparent strangers within the last few days attempting to make the left turn. They did not see the small signs overhead.

Pa Newc has heard a considerable number of comments on the stop sign at Albert street and Sheridan avenue and is yet to hear one that believes that the traffic squad of the city has the stop sign on the right street. All agree that the sign should be on Albert street, for the preponderance of through traffic is on Sheridan. The sign should be moved to Albert street, and the stop should be required on Albert street.

QUESTIONS.

Hoover Faces Them Squarely.

Hoover does not talk much but when he does talk he speaks fearlessly and without equivocation. There is abundant evidence of this in his acceptance speech and other pronouncements since that time. His analysis of the farm question is admitted even by his opponents as shedding real light upon the perplexing situation for the first time. His statement of remedies was positive and feasible. His firm and fearless stand on the prohibition question which has been touched so lightly by politicians inspired confidence and admiration for its clarity and logic. His recital of other questions that the nation will have to face in the near future assured the country that his ideas are positive and his plan of action effective. We need these qualities in a President.

ENGLISH FLIER LONG OVERDUE ON OCEAN HOP

off from Harbor Grace, N. F., in his daring attempt to make a solo flight across the Atlantic in a tiny 85-horsepower moth plane, his wife and many of his friends here today still clung to the forlorn hope that he was forced down at sea and picked up by a ship carrying no wireless.

The miniature plane was sighted only once since leaving its starting point. The Dutch steamer Hardenburg reported sighting the plane about 12:30 o'clock yesterday morning at a position between 600 and 700 miles north and east of Harbor Grace.

MacDonald had intended negotiating the 2,000 miles to Croydon field, England, in about 20 hours. Weather conditions almost over the entire route were reported as favorable and it is this fact which is causing much misgiving here. Even if he encountered adverse conditions, MacDonald should have arrived at the Irish coast yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. MacDonald spent her second sleepless night in the company of friends who attempted to cheer her up.

"It's been a frightful struggle but I'm going through with it," she sorrowfully declared. "I haven't given up hope yet. How can I? I would be wrong of me to do so. Oh, if he only would come now."

The daring flier approximately 110 gallons of gasoline and had expected to get about twenty miles out of each gallon unless he met head-winds. His plane was capable of 110 miles an hour.

The general feeling in aviation circles today was that MacDonald's failure to reappear anywhere on this side of the Atlantic was a sign that he had gone the way of many other intrepid souls who had pitted their all against the Atlantic and lost.

While praise of his daring and courage was heard on all sides, many thought MacDonald's attempt was foolhardy.

All shipping along the course he was to have traversed has been asked to be on the lookout for MacDonald's plane. Beacon lights flared all night along the Irish coast and at Croydon with the dim but vain hope that the "moth" plane would make a belated appearance.

Completing New York Address

Hoover planned to devote a part of the day to putting the finishing touches on his New York address, which will deal with the relationship between government and business. Due to the statements of his Democratic rival, Governor Alfred E. Smith, about Republican finances and Republican claims to economy, Hoover will cite some financial statistics upholding the Republican claims.

The Hoover board of strategy meanwhile planned the itinerary of his western trip. At the insistence of Missouri leaders Hoover probably will make a prepared speech in St. Louis. If he does the nominee undoubtedly will visit Denver on the last Saturday night of the campaign and probably will close the campaign with a radio address either from Los Angeles or his home in Palo Alto, Cal.

The extent of his itinerary will depend entirely on political conditions as the campaign enters its final week.

of the dredging is to be borne by the city. When the matter of dredging first came up it halted the letting of the contract until action was taken by city council relative to the payment of the bill. It is believed that the amount of dredging will be considerably less than at first contemplated, as it is recognized that any extensive excavations along this line would soon be filled up by the wash during high water.

Contractor Byers expects to begin work on the bridge at once. It will be 150 feet long and will be constructed of reinforced concrete, something like the South Jefferson street bridge.

Diamond Rings For The Ladies

Capitol Theatre And Jack Gerson Combine To Give Away Diamonds Every Monday Night

Diamond Rings should become more or less commonplace if the recently completed arrangement between the Capitol Theatre and Jack Gerson, the well know jeweler is continued for long. Every Monday evening, some lady is going to get a diamond ring valued at $50.00, absolutely free. All she has to do is be in the theatre.

The plan is this. At every show, tickets with numbers on them will be given at the door. Then on Monday evening the lucky number will be drawn and the holder of the lucky number will walk out with a sparkler.

Not so bad! Diamond rings for nothing are something new here, and the idea should prove to be immensely popular. The only provision is that the winning lady must be in the theatre on Monday night when the numbers are drawn. That's all.

It's a good guess that the Capitol Theatre will be popular with the ladies for where is the woman who does not like diamonds? No matter if she has a bucketfull of them at home, another one is always appreciated. And the Capitol Theatre is going to be the one to give the diamonds away.

For the first Diamond Night, the Capitol is offering that stirring drama of the newspaper world, "Freedom of the Press". It is a story of an attempt to muzzle a newspaper and you can just guess that it's filled with some interesting moments. Four big acts of vaudeville will be shown and at nine o'clock Monday night the first diamond ring will be given away.

TARIFF AND WORKING CONDITIONS

HENRY M. LELAND of Detroit, founder of the Lincoln Motor Company, is speaking:

"Our 30,000,000 wage earners work altogether the shortest hours and receive by far the largest wages of any wage earners on earth. If tariff schedules are reduced to a point where manufacturers in the cheap-labor countries of Europe can bring their products into this country and undersell our own products, there is then one of two things for our industries to do and that is, reduce wages to meet that competition, or close down their plants and throw millions of our workmen into idleness. Our people largely spend as they go; in fact, many of them spend far in advance of their incomes, and the want and distress which would result from the cutting off of their incomes, and the result to their creditors, are absolutely indescribable."

Mr. Leland is not merely viewing-with-alarm for political effect. His statement is a well-reasoned argument for the continuation of Republican policies under the leadership of Herbert Hoover. It is a statement which concerns every man who works and every man who has what Mr. Hoover calls "the will to work."

There can be no doubt that the prosperity which has characterized the administration of President Coolidge is due in no small measure to the operation of the protective tariff, the central principle of the Republican economic doctrine. "Coolidge prosperity" is actual not mythical. The proof is to be found in the fact that 4,000,000 more men are now employed than at the beginning of this administration, that wages are high and living conditions better, that agriculture has largely recovered from the condition into which it was pitched by the Underwood tariff, that the business outlook continues to grow better.

If the worker in the United States is to preserve his home from want, he must have a protected market—a market of the sort which a fair, protective tariff guarantees.

Mr. Leland talks dollars-and-cents wisdom when he calls attention to the danger of lowering the tariff. Productive workers of whatever sort or class will do well to heed his words.

THE HORRIBLE EXAMPLE

NOVEMBER 11 will be the tenth anniversary of the signing of the Armistice.

Ten years ago half of the world was trying to fight harder. Today all the world is trying hard to keep out of a fight. Ten years ago the world, frantic with joy, was convinced it had witnessed the last war. There have been several little wars since, and rumors of war float in and out with as great frequency as before 1914.

The "war to end war" will keep alive this generation's passion for permanent world peace. Those who can remember the horrors and suffering of the World War will live out their lives on the side of peace by arbitration.

In pre-Volstead days the most powerful influence for temperance and total abstinence was the "horrible example" of intemperance, of which every community had at least one. The horrible example of war is the World War.

Armistice Day should continue to be observed for two reasons: On this day let the nation remember those who fought and died and remind itself of the terrible price the world paid for that disastrous struggle. There is hope and comfort in the fact that Armistice Day orations in all countries observing that greatest of days are orations of peace, not of war.

REFERENDUM NO. 13, VOTING MACHINES

OPPOSITION to the proposed Constitutional Amendment, No. 13, to permit the use of voting machines where needed, comes chiefly from two sources: The professional election crook and the misguided citizen who, failing to understand that the matter is optional instead of mandatory, protests at the cost of the new equipment.

Probably reason can not reach the first class. But the second class should be amenable to a change of view if the plan is properly explained.

At present the Constitution of Pennsylvania decrees that all election practices must be uniform throughout the state save in one particular. The exception relates to the registration of voters which may vary in detail among the different classes of cities from the boroughs and townships.

Otherwise the Election Code governs all alike. This means, as the law stands today, that the general assembly could not permit voting machines in densely populated places without forcing them upon every district in the commonwealth. In order to overcome the difficulty a second exception must be added to the present requirement for uniformity. Even then the legislature will be unable to impose the machines on a community. The innovation will be impossible unless the district itself so votes. The essence of home rule will be preserved inviolate to the cities and voting districts.

The two or three hundred million dollars Chairman Raskob of the Democratic National Committee made during Republican administrations is the best proof that prosperity is no myth.

Eckener and the Moth.
Lincoln's Short Letter.
Said John D., Sr.
Thorough Banditry.

By ARTHUR G. BRISBANE
(Copyright, 1928, by N. Y. American, Inc.)

Dr. Eckener will fly back with his great Zeppelin the latter part of next week. He has confidence in his ship, and says it needs the round trip.

Meanwhile, Commander H. C. MacDonald, an English flyer, started for England from this side, taking off in a tiny Moth plane of 100 horsepower and fuel for 35 hours of flight.

Commander MacDonald, only 23, might save his courage for something more uesful. But the world will wish him well in his gamble with death.

On June 12, 1848, Abraham Lincoln wrote to William H. Herndon a short letter, telling what he thought about Zachary Taylor's prospect of election.

The letter was sold Wednesday for $3,000.

Lincoln, 37 years old when he wrote that letter, would have been amazed had he known what would happen to it.

At that time he would have been glad to get the job in the interior department for which he applied unsuccessfully. Fortunately he didn't get it, for it might have taken him out of politics.

In so-called "investment trusts," formed here and there, you are invited to buy stock and told, "We buy assorted stocks, using our magnificent judgment, buying the best. Your big or little investment will increase in value as the stocks we buy increase in value."

So they will, IF the stocks increase in value.

You know the story about John D. Rockefeller, Sr., urged to buy stock in a small railroad, because a big railroad was going to lease it for 99 years and guarantee dividends.

Mr. Rockefeller inquired, "Did he happen to mention who was going to guarantee the guarantor?"

Some investment trusts undoubtedly will produce excellent returns. Some WON'T.

Be careful in selecting an investment company to handle your estate.

The mere word "trust" doesn't mean anything.

Thoroughness is the cornerstone of modern banditry. A young woman wife of an alleged burglar, who could tell a story dangerous to criminals, will never tell it on this earth. She was found Wednesday morning with her throat cut and her head battered in.

Chicago contributes four bombings in different parts of the city. The bombings represent a new form of industry, the "racketeers" exploding bombs in three tire and battery shops and one shoe shop in the effort to frighten such concerns into paying tribute.

This campaign had not been able apparently to interest President Coolidge very deeply, or at least not deeply enough to make him enter the campaign actively.

But on Tuesday night Gov. Smith told a big crowd in Sedalia, Mo., and millions of people via the radio, that President Coolidge's economy is nothing but a MYTH. He quoted figures, using all his intensively convincing methods in presenting Mr. Coolidge and his Republican party, in plain English, as a "BLUFF", so far as economy is concerned.

President Coolidge will stand anything in reason, but not EVERYTHING. And Gov. Smith by that statement may find that he has done what nobody else could do, in starting Mr. Coolidge as an active worker in this campaign.

If that happens, it will not be bad news for Mr. Hoover.

If news is "what never happened before," this really is news.

In Germany a flying machine traveled from Berlin to Dessau with the controls in the hands of an artificial "iron man" made of metal. A new gyroscopic steering device worked perfectly.

No hand but that of the robot touched the controls, except when taking off and landing. The man of iron sitting rigid in his seat held the control until the machine was above the landing field.

Men used to say, "flying will never be practical." What would they have said about a man, artificially made, steering a flying machine thru the clouds?

Mexico is a dangerous place for rebels. The latest news tells how Florencio Sanchez, a captured rebel, betrayed five of his followers, to save his own life. Having told what he knew he was immediately executed. His associates were executed, also, by shooting.

According to an Associated Press dispatch, the colonel in charge of the firing squad said to the men about to die, "You are going to be executed for serving as instruments for those who foster your ignorance—the clergy."

A religious war is not pleasant.

Bible Thought For Today

GOD WILL GUIDE THEE—Be ye not as the horse or as the mule which have no understanding; whose mouth must be held in with bit and bridle. I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go. Psalm 32: 9-8.

PRAYER—O Spirit of the living God we need thy guidance for the way is strange to us. Keep us from self will. Make us teachable and then show us the way to walk.

Hints and Dints

Sun sets tonight 5:14. Sun rises tomorrow 6:17.

In the words of a colored gentleman, "Dat Mr. Smifth man who is wantin' day job of president sure done recommend himself most highly!"

After all, a stable government only requires horse sense.

If some birds just quit talking about things they do not know anything about, a lot of trouble would be avoided by a lot of people who don't talk any foolishness.

If you want to test your memory, try to remember the things that worried you yesterday.

Usually you can tell, just by looking at a man, that he thinks his wife should be more grateful for her good fortune.

We are told that women make just as good jurors in court as men do. Kind Heaven help them if they don't. In the old days a pretty female vamp could swing a jury of men her way. Now we wonder if a "pretty man" could get away with anything like that. If there is anything like a pretty man, of course.

We wonder if the reason foreigners believe all Americans are so rich is because we charge one another so much.

A chap has obtained a patent on an automobile driven from the rear seat. Nothing new about that in our family.

One of the inherent and ineradicable traits of the American voter is that they infinitely prefer to vote against somebody or something than for them. This is a true fact and cannot be disputed successfully by anyone.

Invention wanted—motor brakes that get tight with the driver.

For about the first time in the history of the city of New Castle there is no public school building in the first ward. There are several school buildings in all of the other wards. Many people will be surprised to read that.

There is no real substitute for brains. The pretended substitute is silence.

Every now and then we see a bird, some female, also, who thinks he is much better than ordinary humans. Those apes bring to our minds poor people's apple butter. Comb that out of your whiskers!.

We often wonder if reformers appreciate that there will be no opportunity to reform in Heaven.

We cannot run all of the stuff sent us for this column, because we have to make a living out of the paper and we do not want to die prematurely. Some people's idea of what a newspaper should print is not fit to print.

The Bible tells us how hard it is for a rich man to get to Heaven, but it does not say that it is a cinch for a poor man, either.

A Chicago man is accused by his wife of wiring their home so she would be electrocuted, and when that failed tried to kill her with a meat cleaver. She is in the hospital and he cannot be found. Her time had not come to die, we feel sure.

We feel sure it will not be many years until the automobile manufacturers have all the money in this country. In the old days the saloons had about all of it.

It was our pleasure to visit the Fairview dahlia gardens, owned by the Misses Totten on the Perry highway about four miles east of Harlansburg. They have between two and three acres in dahlias. We have seen lots of dahlia farms, but nothing like this one. The people of New Castle have no idea any such beautiful show exists so near here. Visitors are always welcome, but no flowers are given out on Sundays. If you want to see something worth seeing go out there some week day before frost of a killing nature comes. Do it soon and you can bite us if we are not telling the truth.

We never could get up any sympathy or tears for a deliberate liar or murderer. We put the liar first because we despise a liar worst of any human thing we know. Political liars, of course, come first.

John D. Tromley, a farmer of Connecticut, has a calf, but what a calf! Outside of the regular calf equipment, this particular specimen carries an extra eye, extra horn, extra tongue and an extra set of teeth. Mama cow, who is quite healthy, seems to be as surprised at the number of spare parts on her new born as is Tromley, and he is considerably so.

General Pershing narrowly escaped death the other day when his automobile was hit by a truck. Compared with out city streets the battles of Europe were safety zones.

Beef prices, says an exchange, are going still higher. Who was the scoundrel that taught the cow to jump over the moon?

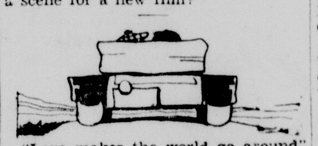
A correspondent wants to know if it is dangerous to eat more than two eggs at a meal. It all depends James on the age of the eggs.

If Germany gets more and more of the tourist business away from France in spite of the prejudice which the war has left the reason will be plain. The Germans are doing everything in their power to make travel agreeable. They offer free visas, they do away with needless customs formalities and they do not levy exasperating petty taxes. The fondest friend of France can hardly say that the tourist is regarded there as anything but the goat.

Some people get peeved when they hear their neighbors radio going at full speed in the middle of the night. Life has not changed. Their forefathers used to complain about the chap next door who insisted upon playing the clarionet at midnight.

"You can't always tell how good a second-hand car is by the quality of the paint" declares one of our suspicious friends.

The thrilling story of the marriage of a movie producer and a scenario writer on a railroad train leaves us cold. How do we know but that it was a scene for a new film?



"Love makes the world go around" sang the poet. Alas! It too frequently pokes along in the middle of the highway so the world can't go around.

Four ministers officiated at the marriage of a man in New York the other day. And just to think that one judge can untie the knot in less time than it takes to say "Jack Robinson."

Some persons are annoyed because girls are going about without stockings. But we thing it perfectly proper as long as they wear a sufficient amount of summer furs.

Mr. Curtis has lost his voice. So, apparently has William Allen White.

It's about time for a Society of Those Who Claim To Have Taken a Drink with One of the Candidates.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

COVERED, YES, BUT!

Surf bathing is enjoyed the year around on the public beaches of Southern California. Old and young are to be found every day on the sands from Santa Barbara to Coronado, either basking in the sunlight or plunging into the breakers. The feminine of the species wear every conceivable variety of bathing suits from the most fullsome to the scant single piece affair, scarcely larger than a pocket handkerchief.

La Jolla and Coronda support two colonies of idle Americans. Coronado has long been known as the "Home of the Idle Rich," but for a long time no one thought of La Jolla except as a colony of artists, writers, painters and sculptors. It remained for a haughty Miss from Coronado, to put La Jolla into its proper nich. Riding through the delightful village one day with a party of fellow snobs, she said: "Observe, my dears, the Home of the Idle Poor!"

It was to La Jolla that later two elderly spinisters came. They belonged to a by-gone age, yet they enjoyed the old ocean, the brilliant sunshine and the silver sand. One day the Coronado Miss and a friend went to La Jolla to swim. They each wore the abbreviated Annette Kellerman and met up with the spinisters. The ancient ladies wore what their modesty demanded. They were covered from head to feet, the neck bands of their suits even rising about their ears and the hem of their skirt reaching to the tops of their bathing shoes. It was a costume of which even the Queen of England would approve.

Beholding the vision approaching them, the brilliant one from Coronado exclaimed to her companion, "Look! the 'Covered Wagons.'"

One of the spinisters turned to the other and said, "Did you hear what that 'Stripped Ford' called us?"

And thus did La Jolla give the retort courteous to Coronado.

S'posin' you try t' figger out just what you'd say t' th' heartbroken parents if your car was t' kill a kid on th' street some day when you're hittin' 'er up too fast.

Eclipse Of Famous Old Orioles Credited To New York Yankees

New High Mark Of Baseball Achieved In Recent World Series; Babe Ruth Wins Decision As Greatest Of All Time

Public reaction to the year's World Series baseball games between the New York American and St. Louis National league teams, center largely around the permanent records of the sport. Although history has accepted the supremacy of the old Baltimore Orioles, an aggregation of brilliant stars, and all merit has been measured relative to the performances of that team, a new era and new leadership are now recognized. Babe Ruth, Gehrig, Manager Huggins and their associates step into the all-time leadership class and, in the estimates of the press, become the measures of future excellence.

"Beyond any question of cavil or doubt," declares the NEW YORK SUN, "New York's Yankees are the baseball champions of the world. A strong brief could be submitted to support the contention that they are the baseball champions of all time. Like Cromwell's soldiery, they have not only defeated every opponent but have completely smashed and demolished every opponent."

The GRAND RAPIDS PRESS suggests that "the shades of the grand old Baltimore Orioles, including such gods of baseball's Vahalla as Hanoon, Comiskey, Hughey Jennings and Muggsy McGraw, may as well turn over in their beds or their graves, whichever they now inhabit, and resign themselves to fate."

The apparent weakness of the New York team," in the opinion of the NEW ORLEANS TIMES-PICAYUNE, "was appearence only, as the four-game series has so well shown. Was the deception intentional? Were the Yanks stalling? We can scarcely believe it. Rather it is that the unconquerable spirit of the greatest ball outfit of all time came to the rescue, and sent the players upon the field with an absolute determination to face no failure. * * * Ruth has been endowed by nature, first of all, with an eye of perfect perception and a nerve-and-eye co-ordination of unrivalled completeness. Add to these the muscles of a Hercules and of a Mercury combined—both strength and speed—and you can begin to understand what it was that enabled the great player to triumph."

"Baseball supremacy comes to that group of players that can hit the ball most surely, hardest and oftenest," affirms the ST. LOUIS TIMES. "The reason the New York Yankees are the best ball team in the world is because they can hit the ball. They don't have to have invincible pitchers. About all they need to win a game is to get one of their batters on second base. The other sluggers will see to it that he crosses the home plate. The bat of a Goliath of our national game is worth more than an army of supernumeraries."

The TOPEKA DAILY CAPITAL points out that "no other team ever had both a Ruth and a Gehrig in its line-up. Either one is capable of breaking up any world's series ever played, and both together, when going well, are too much for the nerves of any opposing team." The PASADENA STAR NEWS concludes that as a matter of fact "the Yankees proved to be the better team in practically every phase and feature of the game."

"Ruth is the life of the team," says the COLUMBUS OHIO STATE JOURNAL, with the tribute to that player: "He can pitch, catch or play any position in the field. And with it all, he has a kindly spirit and a jolly way that keep his team mates keyed up to doing their own by no means poor best." The ASBURY PARK PRESS is impressed by the fact that "Ruth receives more money for playing baseball than the President of the United States is paid for conducting the affairs of this great land. But the Yankee management believes he is worth it, and his salary is likely to increase."

Perhaps, suggests the HARTFORD TIMES, Congress should strike a medal in honor of Babe Ruth as "the king of American batsmen for his day." The Times feels that "the design of the medal should show a beautiful Bambino tree with the mighty Babe resting beneath its shade." That paper also predicts that "Ruth, Gehrig and Meusel will be remembered when grandchildren are learning from their grandparents about the wonderful baseball 'in those days'."

"An institution" is the WORCESTER TELEGRAM'S Expression of admiration for Ruth, with the comment: "He is almost bigger than the game itself, but not quite. Nobody would get much of a thrill watching him hit his homers if they never had an effect on the score, on a league pennant race or on a world championship. One person can play golf alone or bowl alone. But baseball is a team game, even when one player overshadows all the others. There probably never will be another Ruth. His Yankee contract runs for another year. But it would be a happy thing for baseball if he could be placed on some other team for a change."

"If a Western team meets the Yanks next year, granted that the latter gains another victory, it will prepare to strive for the pennant by hard playing in the ball field rather than trusting too much to the logic and suggestion of the dope sheet," advises the AKRON BEACON JOURNAL, while the ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH suggests: "Meanwhile, we have revenge to live for. We were beaten, humbled, trampled upon, shamed by Babe Ruth and company, who lived for two years to revenge themselves upon us for the good beating we gave them in 1926."

Miller Huggins, manager of the New York Americans, as a Cincinnatian, is viewed by the CINCINNATI TIMES-STAR as one whose career "is a triumph of big mind over small matter," and that paper reviews his record of the American League and world championships with the further statement: "True, he has had Babe Ruth to help him, but Bambino has at times been a liability in team work and morale. Prima donnas are harder to manage than medicorities. Only a diplomat and a disciplinarian could bring order out of the chaos of temperaments among the Yankees. Huggins has succeeded where others doubtless would have failed." The SCRANTON TIMES also holds that "he has demonstrated his ability as a manager," and that "there is none greater in baseball."

Belief that the decisive character of the series demonstrated the integrity of baseball and clinched public confidence is emphasized by such papers as the CLEVELAND PLAIN DEALER, WATERLOO TRIBUNE CHARLESTON DAILY MAIL.

Dr. Crane's Editorial

VIOLENCE

Some people still put their reliance in force.

But it is eternally true that they that take the sword shall perish by the sword.

The Czar's rule was one of force and it disappeared in a cloud of blood. The Soviet rule also originated in force, is carried on by force, and will probably come to the same bloody conclusion.

The autocracy of Napoleon was a fitting end to the violence of the French Revolution.

Force is a deceptive shortcut to efficiency. There is only one thing that can maintain the perpetuity of a government and that is respect for law.

People must learn to be good losers. They must quit seeking to right their wrongs by violence.

There are some who still believe that the best government is autocracy limited by assassination.

But the whole world is struggling upward toward the realm of law. Not only must wars cease as a means of settling international disputes, but violence must cease as a means of righting real or imagined political injuries.

There is no remedy for acts of violence, in the long run, except the widespread and gradual respect for law.

There is no complete personal liberty nor complete national stability except under law.

Government by public opinion, which is another name for democracy, cannot be established unless there is a universal respect for life.

Ideas cannot be assassinated. Killing a person is the argument of a brute. Men should recognize that their only legitimate competition is by ideas.

Those who hope for a revolution, or a new order of things, should be satisfied with argument. The resort to bullets always does their cause more harm than good.

We can only hope and pray that our neighboring republic will cease to depend upon violence and come under the general rule of law.

It may be hard for people of hot blood to submit peaceably to conditions which they deem to be tyrannical and wrong. They have a perfect right to work against these conditions and may be assured that after a while if their cause is just it will prevail.

Universal education, respect for life and universal obedience to law is the only remedy, in the long run, for violence.

Tomorrow—Fighting Ideas.

Just Folks

By EDGAR A. GUEST

BOREDOM

He finds life dreary, dull and flat,
And yawns at all he sees.
The woods are only trees!

A sunset now is common-place,
A flower is just a bloom.
He could not find one striking face
Within a crowded room.

This sick man walks the world about
Where many a song bird sings,
And happy people laugh and shout,
And looks on them as things.

Just things of which he'd had his fill.
Just things of beauty stripped.
And yet they hold the splendors still
By which men's souls are gripped.

These things this sick man singles out
For scorn and dull complaint
Are all great poets write about

Mellon's Speech At Tech Fails To Mention Politics

Andrew W. Mellon, Founder's Day Speaker At Carnegie Tech Thursday

TELLS PLANS TO BEAUTIFY CAPITAL

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 19.—Returning to his home city while the nation's attention is focused on the Presidential campaign, Andrew W. Mellon, secretary of the treasury, shunned politics in a speech at the annual founder's day exercises of Carnegie Institute Thursday to speak on "Developing the Nation's Capital".

Before an audience among which were many who had interpreted the secretary's subject to mean he would discuss the nation's finances, Secretary Mellon described the architectural and landscaping plans the government has in view with respect to beautifying the Capitol grounds in Washington.

Secretary Mellon outlined the plan of 1901, under which an open plaze is to be constructed at the foot of Capitol Hill, looking toward the treasury and White House.

Referring to the beautification plans for the nation's capital, Secretary Mellon said:

"As it becomes more beautiful and its fame grows, people will visit it from all parts of the world and Washington will find, as Paris has done, that architectural and landscape beauty can be a source of profit, as well as pride and satisfaction, to a city.

He referred to the development of the capital as "an opportunity to raise the standard of tastes in this country."

Peter's Adventures in Animal Land

BY MRS. FLORENCE SMITH VINCENT

NO ENEMY, JUST AN OLD CHUM

"Now, every well brought up nestling is taught to be afraid of a snake and is told that the only thing to do is to keep out of the way of the terrible thing, for once a snake 'fixes' a bird with its eye it is all up with the bird.

"So, of course, Cormorant gave up hope at once. There is no knowing what might have happened—he might have fallen to the ground and broken his wing if at his words Glitter-Eyes had not hissed with amuesment—the sound was as different as could be from the hiss he had given when he was angry.

"'Don't be silly, Cormorant,' he chuckled. 'What is the matter with you anyhow. I am not a snake at all. Did you ever happen to see a snake with a beak, tell me that now? And did you ever hear of a snake sitting down upon a tree trunk waiting for a fish to swim by so he could grab it?

"'Look again, old chap. Don't you recognize me? I am Darter, your old channel chum, and many are the tidbits that you and I have devoured in company.

"'I am sorry I scared you, but that is a fault of mine. I frighten my very best friends without meaning to. That is what one gets when one has a head like mine.

"'But after all, it is sort of fun to be half a bird and half a snake—you can fly when you like and crawl when you are tired out; in both the air and water you are at home, and that is more than most birds can say!'

"Long before the fellow had stopped speaking Cormorant had gotten over his fright and was laughing heartily at himself for being so frightened.

"'Well, Darter, you dear old chap, how glad I am to see you! How could I be so stupid as to mistake you for a snake! It only just proves, though, what a short time it takes to forget. I have been away from the channels for two months—I am on my way home now—there are few things in the world that I have not seen, but if any one had ever told me in that short time that I should not remember the face of an old chum as soon as I saw it I would have screeched in his face. How are you, anyhow? And how is Mrs. Darter?'

"'Very well, thanks, but just working to death taking care of the fledglings. Come on over and have dinner with us. She will be delighted to see you and there is plenty to eat. I have had fine luck at fishing today.' Twisting and turning the fellow wriggled out of the water and crawled upon a stump and Cormorant settled down beside him.

"'Thanks very much, Darter,' said he. 'Nothing would suit me better than to dine with you, but to tell you the truth I am in a hurry to get home so I guess I'll not stop today. Do stop darting your head about like that. First your bill is here and then it is there and you move so quickly that it makes me dizzy'."

Next—"Mystery of the Marsh."

"I AM SORRY I SCARED YOU BUT THAT IS A FAULT OF MINE"

U. S. Air Commerce Rivals Europeans Without Subsidies

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, Oct. 19—In striking contrast to the policy followed in Europe the commercial air transport companies of the United States carrying mail, express and passengers receive no federal subsidy and the development since September, 1927, when the government retired from air mail operations has been by private initiative and financing.

The air mail companies not only fly more miles per day than those of any other nation but they fly more miles at night, thus insuring overnight delivery to points as soon as night telegrams are received. The present day mileage of approximately 25,000 miles flown is outstanding as it reflects credit on American initiative, says the American Air Transport association.

France in 1928 allowed 217,174,140 francs for civil aviation including 115 million francs for subsidies, while Germany appropriated 19,750 000 marks and British government in the last seven years spent 1,382,780 pounds in direct aids to companies carrying mail and passengers.

Hidden Opera May Not Be Made Public

Meyerbeer Music Drama Is Discovered; Quirk Prevents Publishing

(International News Service)

BERLIN, Oct. 19.—The existence of a hitherto unknown opera by Giacomo Meyerbeer, great composer, has just been revealed.

A monumental work based on the story of Judith is being held in manuscript form by the estate of the composer, according to Baroness Andrian, the second daughter of the composer who is now an old lady of nearly one hundred years.

Baroness Andrian revealed that in his testament her father decided that only one of his grandsons, if he showed talent for music, should decide, when twenty-five years old, whether the opera was to be produced or not. But there was only one grandson who exhibited any musical talent, and he died when seventeen years old.

The other descendants wishing to remain faithful to the testament have never considered the production or publication of the opera, and are inclined to let it rest in oblivion unless music lovers in the future can override the fantastic devotion of Meyerbeer's descendants.

WANTED FOR MURDER MAN GIVES SELF UP

BEAVER FALLS, Pa., Oct. 19.—Raymond Van Fossen, 24, ended a statewide man-hunt for police and county detectives when he walked into the police station and surrendered.

Van Fossen was charged with the murder of Thomas Stork, slain in a pistol duel Wednesday night, and was held without bail for the grand jury by Justice of the Peace William Levis. Dick Aguido, Mt. Washington, is held as a material witness to the killing. Van Fossen told police he shot Stork in self-defense when accosted by Stork and accused of being too friendly with Mrs. Stork.

Perhaps the easiest way to develop an appreciation of the old books is to read the new ones.

Florida Fruit Crop Begins Moving North

Growers Begin To Harvest Early Oranges; Bumper Crop Reported

(International News Service)

MIAMI, Fla., Oct. 19.—Dade County's bumper crop of grapefruit began its movement north with the shipment of four carloads of 720 crates each, bound for New York. The best crop in recent years due to a plentiful rainfall through the Spring and Summer.

Within the next few weeks growers will begin to harvest early oranges, most of the Navel and Parson Brown varieties which ripen early.

Another crop which has reached a new high mark for commercial shipment is the avocado, known through the north as the Alligator Pear. The avocado will touch its seasonal peak in the middle of October.

Blame Doughboys For Damaging Old Statue

Magazine Claims Soldiers Smashed Ancient Goddess In Off Times

(International News Service)

PARIS, Oct. 19.—American doughboys are responsible for the damage done to a beautiful Burgundy goddess which stands in a grotto in Saint-Seine L Abbaye, [illegible] Dijon, according to the 'Intransigeant.'

"Sequana" is her name and she was once an object of worship for the ancients. Later she became the target for American soldiers during their off time. The body is smashed and the face pitted with bullets. All around the grotto are old papers and tin cans left during the war.

The French newspaper is calling for aid in restoring the old relic where according to legend, childless women formerly came to drink the waters.

GOVERNOR FISHER NAMED TRUSTEE FOR WESTMINSTER

Chief Executive Of State Named As Synod Member Of College Board

Governor John S. Fisher is now a trustee of Westminster college. This announcement was made Thursday afternoon by President W. Charles Wallace of the college, the announcement being that the governor had accepted the post as a synod trustee, to fill a vacancy in the Pittsburgh synod of the United Presbyterian church.

In June, 1927, Governor Fisher was given the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws by Westminster. He is an active member of the United Presbyterian church of Indiana, Pa., his home, and when the vacancy occurred in the board of trustees, gracefully accepted the responsibility.

Jawarski Will Be Brought Back To Pittsburgh Today

Governor Donahey Honors Requisition For Noted Killer; To Die In Chair

(International News Service)

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 19.—Paul Jawarski, Pittsburgh bandit and murderer, will be taken back to Pittsburgh today from Cleveland, where he was captured and wounded in a gun battle with Cleveland police several weeks ago.

County Detective James Geisler of Pittsburgh left Columbus for Cleveland this morning after Governor Donahey honored a requisition by Gov. Fisher of Pennsylvania asking for the return of the gunman to Pennsylvania, where he is under sentence to die in the electric chair for the murder of A. L. Gump, payroll guard for the Pittsburgh Coal company.

France Wants New Marshall For Army

Seek Successor To Marshall Fayolle; Several Generals Named

(International News Service)

PARIS, Oct. 19.—Wanted: a Marshal of France. Since the passing of Marshal Fayolle, the victor of the Somme, the French newspapers have speculated upon the possibility of a successor to the dignity.

Although Poincare in a Senate speech made it plain that there is no necessity of replacing a dead Marshal, the popular feeling is that France should use the occasion to reward one of her war generals.

Gouraud, Weygand, de Castelnau, and several other generals have been mentioned for the honor. It remains to be seen what Parliament will decide when it meets to discuss the question.

Deauville Gamblers Stakes Grow Bigger

Baccarat Gambler's Syndicate Increases Its Capital To 25 Millions

(International News Service)

DEAUVILLE, Oct. 19.—Stakes are growing larger every season in baccaret, French version of the American blackjack game. At the local casino, where four dollar chips were mostly used only some years ago, nobody looks at less than the four hundred dollar variety nowadays.

The gambling syndicate, organized by three Greeks for the purpose of meeting all comers in baccarat, started with a capital of one million dollars. It is increased to twenty-five millions now.

Probably nothing else has been more maligned in this torrid campaign year than good old honest bologna sausage.—The Detrait News.

Liquor Prices Soar In Philadelphia As Result Of Exposure

Philadelphia Police Hope To Do Bigger And Better Policing Now

Bootleg Markets In Many Large Cities Affected By Big Graft Probe

By DAVID P. SENTNER
International News Service Staff Correspondent

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 19.—They ave put the cork in Philadelphia, t there is still a morning-after left the city today; a survey of the ght life of Philadelphia by the Inrnational News Service staff correondent revealed the underworld sping under the effect of the rum obe.

However, discreet and daring peders of illegal liquor continue to opate. But the price has gone up and e quality down. A can of redistilled cohol from which the bootlegger akes his synthetic good and evil will, lls for $53 compared to a pre-probe ice of $19. Six dollar whiskey goes r eight dollars and gin which preously retailed for two dollars now sts three.

Affects Entire Country.

The cleaning up of the liquor instry in Philadelphia will affect the ootlegging markets in many large ties of the country, it was predicted. n estimate was offered that Chicago ceived 50 per cent of its raw alcool, Cleveland 75 and New York 90 r cent from Philadelphia.

The bootlegging element here feels at the present investigation with its velations of extortions is entirely a olice scandal. A number of saloon eepers are reported to have turned e tables on their extortionists by deanding "protection money" for keepg silent as to what Paul once took om Peter.

The reform movement, at least in e case, struck home.

The titian-haired beauty mentioned rominently in the early days of the m explosion, is now leading a sweet nd simple life. The night life caught er in its whirl. Then came the popH.

But now she only goes to the ovies.

"I want to be a nice girl from now n," she said. "Please don't mention y name."

As the trials and grand jury hearngs continue each member of the hiladelphia police force is on his oes. Even automobiles after midight are stopped by police and earched for contraband. It is as if hiladelphia were on the border of etter things.

Construction Of New Brick Plant Begins Next Week

Resume Operations At Pearson Brick Plant Again January 1. 1929

Standing walls of the Pearson brick plant located at Volant which was ravaged by fire a week ago are being torn down according to the statement of S. D. Pearson, general manager, and the foudations for the new all steel structure plant will be laid immediately.

Practically all of the walls have been torn down and debris from the interior removed according to the statement made this morning.

Some of the machinery which was in the building when the burning roof crashed down through the building was not injured to the extent that it cannot be used again.

The Pearson company expect to have the new building under roof again the latter part of November and until the first of the year will install machinery in the new plant.

Unless something of an unexpected nature should occur the new plant will resume operations January 1, 1929, states Mr. Pearson.

County Gives Much To State Sabbath Schools

Is One Of Five Heavy Contributors To Sabbath School Association

HECKERMAN MAKES CONVENTION REPORT

Pennsylvania State Sabbath School Association Has Good Meeting

Lawrence is among the five counties of Pennsylvania which contribute the most per capita to the Pennsylvania State Sabbath School association, it is announced in the report of the recent convention of the association, which took place at Philadelphia by H. C. Heckerman of Bedford, a member of the board of directors.

The other four counties in the class with Lawrence are Pike, Cameron, Monroe and Bedford. Fayette county won the silver loving cup offered by the Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce by having the largest number of delegates traveling the greatest distance. The state association was also presented with three large flags.

Mr. Heckerman's report of the convention includes:

Few people realize the magnitude of the work carried on by this association, calling our attention alone to the record of the field and office activities, part as follows for 1928:

Letters written, 110,145.
Packages mailed, 8,979.
Young People's Certificates issued, 458.
Adult Certificates issued, 185.
Teacher Training Diplomas granted, 2,155.
Standard School Certificates issued, 60.
Pieces Printed Matter sent, 896.800.
Letters received, 21,647.

The record of activities out in the field, in every nook and corner of the State, and directed by the State Association is:

District Conventions held, 536.
District Institutes held, 146.
Special Rallies and Institutes, 553.
County Conventions, 67.
County Tours, 61.
Young People's Conferences, 298.
Executive meetings, 1,817.

All requiring 152,255 miles of travel by the State Staff.

Attention was called to the splendid work done by the Teacher Training Department in charge of Dr. Charles A. Oliver, showing 2,155 graduates during the past year, with a total number of graduates during the 27 years of Dr. Oliver's supervision of more than seventy thousand and more than two hundred thousand enrolled during that time. President Craig and the other Board Members were re-elected with three new vice presidents as follows: Mrs. S. W. Cratt, of Chester county, Mr. E. G. Trexler of Allentown, Mr. Allan Sutherland of Philadelphia.

A working budget of $79,180.00 was asked and mostly subscribed for the coming year.

Twenty-six veteran Sunday school workers were presented with medals for 50 years of continuous service as an officer or teacher. C. G. Masters of Johnstown having 69 years to his credit.

Seven counties carried off honors as 100 per cent counties and were awarded banners.

Gets Letter From Porto Rican Friend

Lucille Wimer Of DuShane Street, Hears About Hurricane

A letter, partly descriptive of the recent hurricane in Porto Rico, has been received by Lucille Wimer of DuShane street from her cousin, Florence Marquart, who is stationed at Salinas, Porto Rico.

"The hurricane was terrible," the letter says. "Houses all around us lost their roofs or were destroyed entirely. Our house was not damaged. Last Friday was the first that we have had any electric lights since the storm. Many are still homeless and are quartered in one of the school buildings. For two weeks we had part time classes, and last Monday we started again on full time.

"Hearing Spanish songs in the United States is quiet different from living in a Spanish country and distance always lends enchantment to a thing. We have not yet recovered from the effects of the storm and it will be some time before everything is built up again and before the trees get their leaves."

Man Suicides After Whipping In Public

German Ex-official Dies After being Horse-Whipped By Relative

(International News Service)

BERLIN, Oct. 19. — Dr. Brueckner, former minister of justice of the little German state of Mecklenburg shot and drowned himself in the 'Lazy Lake' at Schwerin because he had been publically horsewhipped by his nephew.

The tragedy was a result of a romance between Dr. Brueckner and his 23-year old niece who had committed suicide before him.

Her brother held his uncle responsible and grabbed the whip.

Brueckner's brother, the father of the dead girl, wrote to his son: "I admire your deed."

Women who attend this great sale will talk about it for weeks afterward. The values are positively sensational.

Whooping Cough Is Preventable Asserts State Health Secretary

"There are many diseases that lend themselves to the efforts of health departments. But, decidedly, whooping cough is not one of them. Its ability to spread is amazing; and this, in spite of every method adopted by officials to prevent it," said Dr. Theodore B. Appel, State Secretary of Health, today.

"Unfortunately by far the major portion of parents are prone to view this childhood trouble as inevitable. And the attitude of "the sooner they get it and get over it, the better" is a philosophy as general as it is unsound.

"It is true that many older children seem to suffer no noticeable consequences after having contracted this disease. But even in this class it is not infrequent that pneumonia or tuberculosis follows in its wake.

"On the other hand, where very young children are concerned, it is extremely hazardous. Of the deaths from whooping cough last year in Pennsylvania 98 per cent were to be found in children under the five year age.

"It is perhaps owing to the lack of appreciation on the part of fathers and mothers as to the killing and crippling possibilities of this malady that its spread is always so rapid.

"While it is out of the question to keep children from other young people it is quite possible, on the other hand, to realize that a cold in the young may be the forerunner of whooping cough. A physician should therefore at once be consulted and the child be kept away from other youngsters. It is at this time, usually prior to diagnosis, that the disease is highly contagious. Such a rule may seem a bit strict, but if it were followed the whooping cough incidence would show a marked decline.

"Too often doctors and health departments do not learn of the case until it is well defined and the child, through contact, has involved many others. And too frequently, neither the doctor nor the health department hears of the case at all, the parents disliking the quarantine. Both attitudes are careless and the latter is inexcusable, selfish and criminal.

"Whooping cough is a mean enemy to fight, and without the wholehearted and intelligent cooperation of the older members of the family it will continue to do much damage. A child has a right to live. Don't deny it that privilege whether it is your own or your neighbors because of carelessness of selfishness. If eventually whooping cough is to be removed from its present power, parents, and not health departments, will have to do it."

The man who called it a whispering campaign needs the attention of an ear specialist.

Zeppelin Will Begin Westward Jaunt Tuesday

Dr. Hugo Eckener Says Return Trip To Germany To Be Made October 27

INVITES FORD TO RIDE AIRSHIP

Big Dirigible To Visit Cleveland, Detroit, Chicago And St. Louis

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Under present plans, the Graf Zeppelin will start its return trip to Germany on Saturday, Oct. 27, Dr. Hugo Eckener, commander, announced here today.

The passenger list for the return voyage has not been completed, but Eckener declared he had received a large number of applications.

Before heading for home, the zeppelin will tour the middle west, starting from Lakehurst next Tuesday.

Dr. Eckener will leave at 3:30 o'clock tomorrow for Akron, Ohio, to confer with officials of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company, American manufacturers of dirigibles. On Monday he will be in Chicago, returning that night to Lakehurst.

On Wednesday night, the Graf Zeppelin will moor at Scott Field, Belleville, Illinois, and return Thursday to Lakehurst.

On the trip west, Drem Eckener announced the zeppelin would fly over Cleveland, Detroit, Chicago and St. Louis.

He will ask Henry Ford to accompany the zeppelin either on its voyage from Lakehurst to the west, or on the return from the west to Lakehurst.

Roundhouse Group At Altoona Nearly Killed By Chlorine

Score Of Employes Of Railroad Threatened With Asphyxiation Today

(International News Service)

ALTOONA, Pa., Oct. 19.—Gas escaping from a chlorine drum asphyxiated a score of employes in the transportation department of the East Altoona roundhouse of the Pennsylvania railroad here today. Four victims had to be taken to a Altoona hospital, but all others were able to go home after treatment at an emergency hospital at the plant.

Gas masks had to be donned by rescuers who brought the suffocated workmen from the department. Extra doctors and nurses were called to assist the company hospital authorities.

Those taken to the hospital are Leo J. Eger, conductor; L. J. Stratten, foreman; Charles P. Johnston, brakeman; and Malcolm McAlarney, inspector. All are expected to recover.

Lincoln, Nebraska, Business Man Dies In Chair For Killing Of Wife

(International News Service)

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 19.—Still protesting his innocence Frank Sharp, 52, Lincoln business man, seated himself in the electric chair of the state penitentiary here today and paid with his life for the murder of his wife in 1926. "I am innocent of this crime but I am ready to go," were Sharp's last words. He walked to the chair without a quiver and assisted the executioner to adjust the straps, joking with him during the process.

Sharp was twice convicted of murdering his wife who was found dead in their automobile outside of Lincoln two years ago.

Circus In Paris Draws Crowds To See Clowns

By ALICE LANGELIER
International News Service Staff Correspondent

PARIS, Oct. 19. — The circus has come to town. The famous Fratellini clowns are back at their old stamping-grounds, the Cirque d'Hiver and drawing as big crowds as ever.

Paul, who is 52 and was born in a circus in Italy, went back there this summer and got a big welcome from his old countrymen. He has come back with four or five medals and a cigarette-case from Mussolini.

Francois, 49, was born up on the hill of Montmartre and is very proud of the fact. Albert is 42 and was born in Moscow.

Among the three of them they can chatter in a dozen different languages.

Each one has several children who are also in the circus. Three of them are giving a very clever act this year, tumbling from great heights and dancing in original manner.

The Fatellinis have been making all Paris laugh for many years and will probably continue until they die. They also very often set people to crying, for French clowns are not always in a comic mood. Some times they are very sad.

Another celebrated music-hall clown, Grock, caused a big laugh in Paris recently when it was announced that he had just been made a Doctor of Philosophy by the University of Budapest. Grock is a real artist in his manner, everyone agrees to that and he can do his acts in seven different languages, including Hungarian, but if he ever received such a high degree, it will undoubtedly be an honorable distinction which certainly has its price, but can scarcely be confused with that obtained by serious study examinations and diplomas.

Bryan Men Out For Herbert Hoover

Bryan Democratic League Of New York Endorses Hoover For President

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—The Bryan Democratic League, which was organized in 1900 and which has busied itself since in state and national campaigns, indorsed Herbert Hoover for President today.

The statement was signed by the 19 members, the league's 1928 campaign committee, all described as Democrats.

"Mr. Hoover embodies the very qualities," the statement read, "which from his first campaign attached us to William Jennings Bryan—the same passion for the common man, the same fine scruples against underhand dealings, the same quick action against tricky injustices, the same mind on prohibition and Tammany."

The league indorsed Hoover, it said, in the belief that if Bryan were living he would do the same.

Swarms from the human hive may operate differently from early times but they still swarm.

Banker Is Killed, Eight Injured As Airplane Crashes

Frightened Passenger Of Plane Over Atlantic City Causes Accident

DENVER BANKER MEETS HIS DEATH

Pilot Bringing Plane To Earth As Control Is Pulled And Craft Plunges

(International News Service)

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Oct. 19. — George King, 34, pilot of the sight-seeing plane which crashed here last evening, declared today to authorities investigating the tragedy that a frenzied passenger had caused the accident by seizing the controls as he was bringing the ship to the ground. Eight persons were injured, one fatally.

Blames Passenger

King, who is in the Atlantic City hospital with a broken leg, said that the passenger lost his head, believing that the plane was making too rapid a descent. He said he did not know the passenger's name.

W. Octave Chanute, 53, Denver banker, died of a fractured skull and a compound fracture of the right leg two hours after the all-metal Junkers plane, a sister ship of the trans-Atlantic plane Bremen, made a nose dive from an elevation of 1,500 feet. He was a delegate to the convention here of the Investment Bankers' Association.

Critically Injured

Pliny Jewell, 51, former president of the Investment Bankers Association, Boston, Mass., and Thomas W. Dysart, 48, of St. Louis, Mo., were critically injured. Dysart was a member of the syndicate that backed Col. Charles Lindbergh's flight to Paris.

Other passengers injured were Harry L. Duer, 35, of W. W. Lanahan and Company, Baltimore; Alden H. Little, 35, of Chicago; executive secretary of the Investment Bankers Association; Ferdinand Eble, 35, of Atlantic City, former University of Pennsylvania athlet and Ralph Somers, 19, of Atlantic City.

New Blue Cocktail Thrill For Paris

Barkeep Experiments For Years And Finally Is Rewarded With Success

(International News Service)

PARIS, Oct. 19.—A new cocktail has been born in Paris—and it is a blue one, the first blue cocktail ever made. Charley, the celebrated barman of the Royal Haussman Hotel on the Granada Boulevards, discovered it after many sleepless days and nights.

"I've been experimenting for years and years," says Charley, "endeavoring to get this beautiful blue into a good appetizer, and I have finally found the secret. My recipe is: two dashes of gin, two again of maraschino, one dash of cointreau, another of absinthe substitute which tastes much like anisette and then—the secret dash which makes the blue tint, and of course I can't tell you just what that is."

German Police Order Requires All Officers To Be Polite

French Women Go Into New Business

All Of Important Librarians In France Will Soon Be Women

(International News Service)

PARIS, Oct. 19.—French women are now invading fields of business formerly prohibited to the fair sex. The University of Toulouse will soon boast of a pretty black-haired demoisell-librarian.

The University of Lyon, one of the largest in France, already has a young woman in charge and it is likely that in the near future, all of the important librarians will be women.

At the last examination for head librarians, four men only presented themselves and two of these failed. Before long, to be a librarian in France will almost imply being a woman.

Two Bandits Get $12,000 Payroll

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Two bandits slugged a payroll guard on the head today and made good their escape with a satchel containing more than $12,000 in cash.

Two guards, Anieus Humphries, 27, and Charles Veogtle, 18, were transporting the payroll when the bandits slipped up from behind, they told detectives. Humphries, who was carrying the bag was knocked on the head and as he fell the pair made off with the payroll.

Birth Control Leader, Quitting Post, Seeks To Establish Clinics

By RUBY WEIL
Staff Writer for Central Press and New Castle News

NEW YORK, Oct. 19. — Margaret Sanger, who once spent a month in jail because she was a pioneer advocate in birth control, has resigned as president of the organization which she founded as a result of her convictions—the American Birth Control League, Inc. Having led the league in the first seven years of struggle against bitter opposition, Mrs. Sanger has turned over the duel to Mrs. Robertson Jones, of New York.

This does not mean that Mrs. Sanger has abandoned the league. Far from it. It means rather, that the work of the league has expanded to the point where it must be divided more definitely than before. Mrs. Sanger has given up the executive direction of the organization to devote her attention to research and clinical work. In this connection she plans to give lectures and start new clinics. She hopes to prove that birth control will reduce the maternal mortality rate.

MRS. MARGARET SANGER

Saving the Mothers

"This could be avoided," she says. "Many of the women who die in childbirth, and the mothers of many children who die in infancy, may be fit to bear children, but not all that particular time. They may be debilitated from overwork or undernourishment, or from having children in too rapid succession."

Since beginning this work in 1916, five years before the beginning of the league, Mrs. Sanger says she has replied to letters from 500,000 women throughout the country. Most of the writers were referred to physicians whenever possible. Then thousand physicians now are co-operating with the league, which does not advocate indiscriminate broadcasting of birth control information; this is left to physicians.

Mrs. Sanger mentions as progressive states in the birth control movement: Illinois, California, Maryland, New Jersey and Pennsylvania. The last named state has no clinic.

Sympathetic Understanding

When she started to study and agitate for birth control in 1914 Mrs. Sanger had behind her only a firm conviction, born of association with the overburdened mothers of the poor in connection with her work as a graduate nurse. She had, too, the sympathy of a mother of three children in more fortunate circumstances.

As she resigns her presidency to carry on more actively another phase of her work, Mrs. Sanger has behind her a strong league of coworkers and sympathizers. With their aid she hopes to attain her ultimate objective, "To make women conscious mothers, bringing children into the world through conscious desire, not through accident."

Aviators Make Plea For Names On Towns

Pennsylvania Railroad Systematically Names Buildings On Its Routes

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—Desire of cities to get names of towns painted on roofs resulted in a Cleveland paint company and a Wooster, Ohio brush factory sending free paint, brushes and laborers to 100 communities within a few days after they offered to render this service to the first 100 cities which applied. Civic organizations in various parts of the country are sponsoring "mark your town" weeks, according to reports.

In Arkansas, Governor Martineau urged that all cities and towns have their names printed on the roofs of their tallest building. At Ipswich, S D. bank decorated its roof with letters ten feet high, while the Pennsylvania railroad systematically marked the roofs of its buildings for the guidance of pilots.

From the air towns look very much alike and unless the pilot is familiar with the route, it is often difficult to identify his location, and appeal to civic pride is resulting in a brisk use of paint and brush for the benefit of aviation.

Tribes Dicker On Fate Of Aviators

Camels May Be Factor In Fate Of Two Lost French Birdmen

(International News Service)

CASABLANCA, Oct. 19.—Camels are somewhat responsible for the fate of two French aviators, Reine and Serre, captured in the region of Mauritania three months ago.

On their way from Casablanca to Dakar, the Frenchmen were obliged to land among two hostile tribes of Moors. Each chief has imposed his conditions for which liberation which must be transmitted to the French parlementaries by camel.

Three months have elapsed during which amendments to the propositions have been carried back and forth by this slow mode of transportation and the aviators are beginning to wonder when their lot will be decided.

In the meantime, the aeropostal service tries to cheer them up as often as possible by dropping down sweets, cigarettes and insect-powder for they have written back that they are almost devoured by fleas and bugs.

Penn. Mother Praises Friend

There isn't a mother living who won't agree that no half-sick child should be the subject for an experiment with medicines of uncertain merit. When your child is bilious, headachy, half-sick, feverish, restless, with coated tongue, bad breath, no appetite or energy, you know that nine times out of ten it's a sign his little stomach and bowels need purging. And when you know that for over fifty years leading physicians have endorsed one preparation for this condition, there doesn't seem to be any reason for "trying" things.

Rich, fruity California Fig Syrup clears the little stomach and bowels gently, harmlessly and in a hurry. It regulates the bowels, gives tone and strength to them and to the stomach; and helps to give your child new strength, energy and vitality. Thousands of Pennsylvania mothers praise it. Mrs. Mary A. Johnston, 2012 S. Church Lane, West Philadelphia, says: "I'll never forget the friend who got me to give my baby girl California Fig Syrup. Nothing else helped her bowels, which were weak and sluggish. California Fig Syrup stopped her trouble quick, brightened her up, gave her an appetite. I have used it with both my children for colds and little upset spells ever since. I consider them Fig Syrup babies."

Insist on the genuine article. See that the carton bears the word "California." Over four million bottles used a year.

Britain To Have Census For Adults

Will Prepare Electoral Register Of Over Five Million Women

(International News Service)

LONDON, Oct. 19.—A new type of census is to take place in Britain before Christmas. It will be confined to the adult population and its object will be to prepare a new electoral register in view of the 5½ million new women voters who henceforth will participate in municipal and Parliamentary elections.

Until now an electoral register has been prepared by officials from information volunteered by inhabitants of houses. This method is to be superseded by one much more accurate. Under this new decision of the Home Secretary, Sir William Joynson Hicks, a printed official form will be delivered at every dwelling house and tenement and the occupier or landlord, under penalty of $100, is bound to fill up particular of every inmate of the house.

An interesting feature is that women voters will not be asked to declare their age. They will simply have to answer "yes" or "no" to the question "Are you 21 years of age or over?" on a certain date.

America Leading World In Music

Concert Violinist Sees Brilliant Future For American Music

(International News Service)

PARIS, Oct. 19.—America leads the world in music today with a brilliant future ahead of her, is the opinion of Leopold Auer, celebrated concert violinist and teacher of many famous musicians, returning to the United States after a short stay in Europe.

"Nowhere in Europe have I found any orchestras or voices that can compare with the best in America," says Mr. Auer. All the best teachers are there too, and I advise all students to stay at home if they really want to learn great music.

"Of course, the reason spells money. Europe is too poor to pay great artists. Within the next few years, the world will see a fine crop of American musicians, many of them geniuses."

Asked if he cared for jazz, the 83-year-old professor acknowledged that he did a little bit, but still preferred hearing the great old pieces.

Illinois Vote For Presidency Is Badly Split

Both Parties Now Claim Ultimate Victory On Election Day

OPINIONS GIVEN BY BIG CHIEFS

Smith's Speech Tonight In Chicago Will Be Final One In Mid-West

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
International News Service Staff Correspondent

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—Practical politicians of the two opposing parties here in Chicago are as far apart as the poles regarding the outcome of the presidential election in Illinois.

Tom Donovan, successor to the late George Brennan as Democratic national committeeman from Illinois and state chairman as well, has told Governor Smith that he will come upstate to the Cook county line on even terms with Herbert Hoover and that he will carry Cook county by between 100,000 and 200,000.

Sees Hoover Majority.

While Democratic leaders have been pouring news like this in to former Representative James W. Good of Iowa, Hoover manager of the western headquarters, asserts that Illinois will return a normal Republican majority for Hoover, which he estimates at not less than 500,000.

Apparently there was no reconciliation of these widely conflicting claims today. Some of the practical politicians in both parties are going to wake up on the morning after election with a headache.

One of the more optimistic of the Smith managers here is George N. Peek. He is the chairman of the Smith-for-president independent organizations committee, which is endeavoring to capture the farmer vote in the disaffected middle west. Peek adds Oklahoma, Illinois, Indiana and South Dakota to the other list. Peek's claims draw derisive hoots from Good. However, Good does concede that the Republicans have their difficulties in New Mexico, Wisconsin, Tennessee, North Dakota, Missouri and Kentucky. But he is confident that these states will be swung safely into line before election day rolls around.

So confident is Good about the situation in Montana that he also predicts that Senator Burton K. Wheeler will have a close shave in his race with former senator and former Governor Joseph M. Dixon. Wheeler, however, regards himself as already re-elected.

Governor Smith was to have a respite from these political predictions today which is more or less officially "Al Smith day" in Chicago. In a parade at least 30 miles long it is estimated that half a million people will get a glimpse of the famous brown derby and the famous Smith smile.

The parade is just the beginning of a busy day for the governor. Tonight he speaks in the 131st Central armory—the last speech he will make in the west before election. The hall holds less than 10,000 and it is reported that at least 200,000 people will strive for those places. No reserved tickets have been issued.

Although the governor has prepared his speech, he is keeping the subject to himself. It was indicated, however, that he will yield to the pleas of the Chicago leaders and throw off the restraint which has characterized most of his speeches and cut loose with a real rabble rousing speech.

Hickman's Lawyer Receives Letters Threatening Death

Letters Say Harm Will Befall Jerome Walsh If Hickman Does Not Hang

(International News Service)

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 19.—Jerome Walsh, chief counsel for William Edward Hickman, today revealed that he had been threatened with death unless he ceased his efforts to save Hickman from the gallows.

"I have received letters," he said, "which threaten me with death if I do not stop my efforts to save Hickman's life; others say that I will receive bodily harm unless Hickman is hanged. They are the usual 'nut' letters, unworthy of consideration."

Walsh asserted he wanted it plainly understood that his client was Mrs. Eva Hickman, the condemned man's mother.

"When we took the case," he said, "we accepted all the obligations imposed upon us by our oaths as attorneys to give her son every assistance that was lawful and proper.

"On behalf of Mr. Cantillon and myself, I wish to say that we leave this case with a clear conscience.

"If Hickman's parents were as wealthy as those of Loeb and Leopold, I do not believe Hickman would be hanged today."

Receive Bids For New Car For City

When councilmen met formally in city hall today bids for a half ton truck or roadster to be used in the department of garbage collection were opened but the bids were referred to committee.

Shenango Motor company presented a bid of $453 for furnishing a Ford roadster and $460.50 for a truck. Twenty-five dollars would be allowed on the city's car now being used.

McCoy Motor company presented a bid of $570 for a Chevrolet "pick-up type" or a roadster, $536 with $40 allowance on the old car.

Present Oil Painting Of John S. Wallace To Scottish Rite Cathedral

Presentation Address Is Made By Governor John S. Fisher Thursday

CEREMONY OCCURS THURSDAY AFTERNOON

Featuring the Thursday afternoon session of the semi-annual reunion of the Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite, which is in progress in the Scottish Rite Cathedral this week, was the presentation to the Cathedral, of a full length oil painting of Ill. John Schofield Wallace, 33 Degree, the presentation being made for the members by Governor John S. Fisher, a member of the class of candidates.

In presenting the painting to the Cathedral Governor Fisher paid a glowing tribute to Mr. Wallace's record in the Masonic Fraternity, his vision and idealism in planning the Cathedral, and his worth to the fraternity in Pennsylvania, of which he is the leader.

Following the unveiling of the painting, Ill. Walter S. Reynolds, 33 Degree, Lieutenant-Commander of the New Castle Consistory delivered the acceptance address and paid tribute to Mr. Wallace and to Governor Fisher.

Governor Fisher was introduced by City Solicitor Robert McK. White, president of the Cathedral Association Board of Directors. Later in the afternoon, Judge Emory A. Walling, of the Pennsylvania State Supreme Court addressed the members. Judge Walling was recently given high honors in the Supreme Council of the order and is an active 33rd degree member of the Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite.

TWO BOY SCOUT HUNTERS KILLED AFRICAN LIONS

By ROBERT W. THOMPSON
International News Service Staff Correspondent

PARIS, Oct. 19. — A shot rang out across the African veldt and two American Boy Scouts saw another lion take a large mouthful of sand in recognition of their marksmanship.

The Boy Scouts who conquered the jungles with rifle and camera are Douglas Oliver of Atlanta, Ga., Dick Douglas of Greensboro, N. C., and Dave Martin of Austin, Minn.

The boys were a bit blase about the beasts that prowl in the Congo and points south. "Lions? Well to tell the truth we're more afraid of Paris taxicabs than wild animals," said Oliver.

Saw Many Lions.

Each of the boys has a lion's mane tucked "under his belt." "We saw more than 200 lions and our hunting permits allowed us three each but, pshaw, the first was so easy that we had more fun taking pictures of them," they averred.

"Maybe big game hunters need to be put straight on one fact. It is easier to kill a lion than a zebra. You may think that a mule is tough-skinned but he's as tender as a calf compared to a zebra.

"We blazed away at a herd of zebras but our guns had as much effect as the starting pistol for a hundred yard dash. Guess the bullets must have rolled off their hides."

Douglas, Dick and Dave are three musketeers who were selected for the African trip by the Boy Scouts of America and backed by George Putnam, the publisher.

Enjoyed Experience.

They left New York four months ago for Kenya Colony and will soon return to America with the lion pelts, hundreds of protographs and documents. They are considering writing a book which is expected to be the first real-life account of boy adventurers and overshadow Horatio Alger, Henty and other oldtime masters of juvenile thrillers.

The boys expressed regret at having to quit playing hide-and-seek with the uncaptured menageries of the southern continent. But school bells are ringing. Dick, who has a high school diploma, will enter Georgetown university. Dave and Douglas still have desks in the 12th grade waiting for them.

Woman Is Expert Gets Better Work

(International News Service)

LINCOLN, Neb. Oct. 19.—A softly modulated feminine voice, speaking with authority and knowledge, can be heard any time amid the tappings of mechanics' hammers, and rasping of files as they turn out Lincoln-Page biplanes from the factory here

The mechanics, working on the planes, look to the young woman, owner of the voice for orders, respect the orders and carried them out as well as they could. There are no glances which say "Woman should stay in her place," for this young woman appears to be in a place she understands thoroughly.

She is Mrs. Ray Page, wife of the owner of the Lincoln-Page company. This small brunette woman has almost as great a knowledge of airplane motors as the most experienced mechanic in her husband's factory.

In fact, Mr. Page says she is the boss and as technical mechanical problems come up, Mrs. Page is called upon to solve them, which she does with efficiency and dispatch.

"She can get more work out of men than I ever could," Mr. Page confesses, "and a lot better work than we ever have been able to get with a man foreman."

It all came about, Mrs. Page said, when her husband became ill several years ago and could not direct the operations of his factory. She went to the factory, primarily to attend to the bookkeeping, became interested in motors and aviation generally and when Mr. Page returned to his job in the factory she refused to return to hers as a housekeeper.

She studied motors and worked in the plant beside the mechanics until she obtained a thorough knowledge of the most intricate parts.

In Kansas City recently during the trans-continental air derby she attended a dinner for the flyers given by the Chamber of commerce.

A Substitute for Dieting

PARTICULAR people do frown on those who "pick and choose" at the table. A "diet" is often embarrassing and always a hardship. And nine times out of ten it is unnecessary.

Try this simple experiment; see if that "indigestion" doesn't disappear from the very hour you first take Pape's Diapepsin. To restore good digestion just eliminate excess acid. A tablet of "Pape's Diapepsin" after eating or when pain is felt will instantly neutralize the acidity and banish all digestive trouble and pain.

So, do buy a 60-cent package of "Pape's Diapepsin" today. This not only means instant relief, but by soothing, healing and strengthening your weak and disordered stomach a little "Pape's Diapepsin" keeps your digestive system healthy and helps to prevent various disorders. You may have decided that nothing could give you a "strong" stomach; just make the diapepsin test!

Divorces Grow With England's Poorer People

(International News Service)

LONDON, Oct. 19. — Welfare workers are viewing with alarm startling increase in the divorce rate among the poorer classes in Britain, consequent upon the introduction of the Poor Person's Procedure Act, which gives facilities to persons of small means to secure easy divorces.

At least 2,000 people, they point out, annually are availing themselves of the Act in London alone, while more than 5,000 cases probably are heard throughout the country every year, it is estimated.

More Applications

Expect legal circles agree that the Act has resulted in an increase in divorce applications, and believe that as the provisions of the measure become more widely known increasing use will be made of it by poor people anxious to have the marital knot untied.

Three hundred cases are down for hearing in the divorce courts for the forthcoming term, the majority being composed of pleadings under the poor persons rules.

Control of these cases has become an exceedingly elaborate affair. The terms of the Act set up in a committee of 46 members in London alone to examine applications, while 80 committees sit in provincial areas. Committeemen act as legal advisers to applicants inducing them to settle or abandon cases which have small chance of success. In addition to divorce work, the committees also consider and advise upon police, county and assize court cases instituted by poor persons.

Fees Are Limited

The operation of the Act is only carried through by the self-sacrifice of attorneys and counsel. Eminent members of the British bar have frequently conducted poor persons suits for days without any fee or reward, and London attorneys as a body give services which represent a subscription of at least $100,000 a year to the cause of poor litigants generally.

Such work is at present restricted to the High Courts, proposals for inclusion in the County and local courts having been defeated owing to the heavy work entailed.

Aero Club Dinner Meeting Is Held

Bylaws And Flying Contract Are Approved At Last Night's Meeting

A well attended dinner meeting of the New Castle Aero club, which was recently formed, was held last night at the Elks club and a number of matters of importance considered and acted upon.

Thomas J. Evans, president, presided.

Matters taken up included the consideration of bylaws to govern the organization, the contract with Kegarise Air Transport, Inc., for the instruction of flying members, and how long the charter might remain open. The bylaws and the contract were adopted after considerable discussion and the return of a couple of sections of the bylaws to the committee consisting of the officers of the club for changes believed necessary to advance the interests of quite a number of people.

The charter will remain open for another week, at least, for any who desire to join the organization. Prior to the arrival of the ship ordered by the club, the plane of Kegarise Air Transport will be used in the instruction of the members.

It is proposed that the club shall hold a dinner meeting every alternate Wednesday evening. The Elks club will probably be the principal place of meeting.

Those present at the dinner meeting last night were H. C. Sherman, Fred Specht, Robert Graham, H. O. McClure, Chester Dean, Roy F. Caldwell, William Wilson, B. L. Hall, A. H. Gonick, R. R. Kegarise, Thomas J Evans, C. D. Minick, J. H. Tackenberg, L. S. Ash, George Schmidt, James P. Cook, Calvin Westcott, N. E. Gustafson, J. D. Lamoree, H. K Bell, George Brinton and Dale Anderson.

The political bee isn't a distinct species, but a variety of the hum-bug family.

Dear Boys and Girls,

Yes, Hallowe'en will soon be here and we're going to have the nicest Hallowe'en club column that you ever read! So don't fail to watch for our Friday page, just before that big day.

And now, just a bit of advice from MA NEWC. Boys and girls, I hope that none of you will play any serious pranks that will harm anyone's person or property this year. And remember, you have all evening on Hallowe'en for your fun, you know, so don't be impatient and play tricks now! "A word to the wise is suf-fic-ient!"

Your friend,
MA NEWC.

When everyone's busy
And no one will play:
Some things to make or do
Will keep the blues away.

A "COMEBACK" TOP

To make a "come-back" top, use one of Mother's kettle lids. Be sure that the lid has a small wooden handle upon the top, that is so tight as to be unable to turn without the lid turning too. Next, get a piece of string about five feet long, and tie it on the handle. Wind it around the handle and then stand upon a chair. Keep hold of the string and let go of the lid, and watch what happens. You will find that it will go spinnig downward, come part way up again, and then fall once more. When it has stopped, rewind it just as you would wind a regular top.

POEMS EVERY CHILD SHOULD READ WISHES AND WORK
(Selected)

Said one little chick, with a funny little squirm, "I wish I could find a nice fat worm."

Said another little chick, with a queer little shrug, "I wish I could find a nice fat bug."

Said a third little chick, with a strange little squeal, "I wish I could find a nice yellow meal."

"Now, look here," said the mother, from the green garden patch, "If you want any breakfast, you just get up and scratch."

THE BASEBALL GAME

The boys of Hillsvale were holding a baseball practice on their smooth baseball diamond, which adjoined the Hillsvale Country Club. Each lad wore a clever striped baseball uniform and cap with a framing H upon it. The boys seemed to be in the best possible condition for the season's games, the first of which was to be played against a team called privately and scornfully by the Hillsvale "nine," the "Beggars of Bandey's Alley." That they would win the forthcoming game, the wealthy boys had not a doubt, and Hughes, their pitcher, was heard to remark that if the "Beggars" played like they looked, the scorekeeper would soon become tired of chalking up runs for Hillsvale.

While these boys were discussing the coming game, another team was practicing in an empty lot with a cheap ball that had been knock completely out of shape. The first baseman and the catcher wore the only two leather "mits" that the team possessed. The other boys wore cotton working gloves which they had padded themselves, in order to keep the ball from stinging too badly. The catcher's mask was a marvelously clever affair, originally having been an old wire waste-basket, while his "body-protector" had been made of his last winter's overcoat. And this was the team that was to play Hillsvale's "nine!" No wonder Hughes had made fun of it! The boys of Bandey's Alley certainly made a poor appearance.

The day of the big game, which was to be played on Hillsvale's diamond, arrived, and with it, many "rooters" for both sides. On Hillsvale's side of the bleachers, refined and cultured spectators waved tiny flags and cheered their team. On the opposite side, the citizens of Bandey's Alley had turned out in their best array and their gay clothes made splotches of bright color along their rows of seats.

As the two teams trotted out to the field, cheers arose from both sides, and as McMann (Bandey's pitcher) and Hughes shook hands, the watchers settled back in their seats to see a good game of baseball. Bandey's Alley was allowed to "bat up" first because they were the visiting team, and although they made a rather comical appearance against the well-dressed and equipped wealthy boys, each wore a wide green band around his arm with a B shining bravely upon it.

Rodgers of Bandey was the first man up at bat. Hughes, overconfident, gave him a swift straight ball which was hit to left field, and Rodgers made first base easily. Bernstein the next man up, struck out, for Hughes was unwilling to give away any more runs to these heavy hitters, and so he shot some tricky balls around the plate. At the end of the first half of the first inning, the Bandey Boys had scored but one run,—but it was one too many for Hillsvale! To their own astonishment, Hillsvale struck out when at the plate, and the astonished eyes of Hughes watched McMann's clever "incurves" and "outcurves" and his swift "drop" ball.

The teams were evenly matched and in the ninth inning the score stood 5 to 5—a tie! McMann was perspiring and Hughes almost wilted, but the game must be won! Each boy thought that no substitute pitcher could carry the game through the last inning and hope to win, and so each stubbornly stuck to his post. In the first of the ninth inning the Bandey Boys had made "two out," and when little Benny Wade strode up to the plate, McMann groaned under his breath, for Benny, "though good at right fielding, was anything but a heavy batter.

But Benny, his teeth set, swung blindly but swiftly at the first low ball that came his way, to everyone's astonishment, it soared up, up, up and then down beyond the wall surrounding the field! And Benny sped quickly around the bases, a happy grin on his little freckled face. The next lad again struck out but no one seemed to care, for the air was still filled with cheers for Benny. And McMann (in the last of the last inning) used his last ounce of strength when he pitched to the other side, putting three men out and not permitting another run. And so the game ended 6 to 5, in favor of the Bandey Alley "Beggars."

It is strange, but the Hillsvale boys seemed to suffer a great change of heart and became very friendly with the other team. And modest Benny still insists to this day, that it was only luck that made him win the game!

New York Is Now Fearing Poison Booze

Even "Best" Speakeasies Sell Bad Liquors, Says New Yorker

OVER 2,000,000 REGISTER IN CITY

Fritz Kreisler, Austrian Violinist, Dines On Old Country Atmosphere

By CLARK KINNAIRD.
Exclusive Central Press Dispatch to The New Castle News.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Poison booze deaths actually are frightening New York. Energetic reporters have found that even the "best" bootleg joints serve poison. In 287 days deaths from bad liquor totaled 428. Autos killed 835 in the same time. New York is the battleground of the nation. Indeed, indeed

More than 2,000,000 New Yorkers expect to vote for president, according to final registration lists. No other city in the world can boast so many voters. As a matter of fact, few states can. New York's registration figure this year is 2,024,000.

New York may be far from the cattle grazing country, but the Long Island railroad was fined $100 in federal court at Brooklyn for mistreating them, nevertheless. The railroad was charged with keeping the bovines, consigned to a slaughter house, 38 hours without unloading them for rest, water and feed.

All is not glitter on Broadway. Harry Dix, 24, of Roanoke, Va., collapsed from hunger in the heart of the White Way. Hundreds stopped to aid him, but he was too weak for anything except a glass of milk. For days he had peered into restaurant windows.

Mussolini is learning English, says Miss Lillian Gibson, English newspaper woman—and she has been doing the teaching. Miss Gibson is here from Italy to help on scenery for a prospective production of "Macbeth." Il Duce reads aloud in English to Miss Gibson, and she checks up on his pronunciation, she explains.

Wild stories are being told about night clubs since a girl died from a beating in one. She was protesting the treatment of another girl.

One story relates how a young man with his girl found he hadn't sufficient cash with him to meet the exorbitant costs. The manager came to him in dulcet tones to learn whether all the money the young man had was all he had. It was. The manager invited the "guest" into another room to talk it over. There the guest was beaten up so that he will be crippled for life.

Visitors to New York, go to night clubs at your own risk. No joint of the wild and wooly days of the old west was half so bad.

A few days ago there was a brief notice in the papers that Henry Siegel was critically ill of heart disease in a Hackensack, N. J., hospital. Twenty years ago that item would have created a sensation. For then he was a merchant prince.

He was president of the Siegel Stores corporation, capitalized at $10,275,000, and controlling Siegel, Cooper & Co., in Chicago, the Big Store, the Fourteenth Street Store and Simpson-Crawford Co., in New York, and Henry Siegel & Co., in Boston.

He suffered reverse 15 years ago. His holdings were swept away. Broken, he moved to Rutherford, N. J. Lately he ran a small haberdashery shop on Main street, Hackensack.

One sees Fritz Kreisler, dining at a popular German restaurant, where he and other musical geniuses can get such delicacies as German pancakes, lentil soup, roast duck, kuchen and beer that foams. And everybody looks alike to the waiters, who add up their tips in German Echter Deutcher!

ANOTHER UNSOLICITED TRIBUTE FOR ALL-BRAN

Good news for sufferers from constipation

Mrs. Kiell sat down and wrote us a letter when she had proved ALL-BRAN a safe "sure-cure" for constipation. Read her voluntary tribute:

April 4, 1927

"I have been using Kellogg's ALL-BRAN for quite some time and I want to tell you how much I appreciate it. I have found it a sure-cure for constipation, and know it is a remarkable regulator for the stomach. After using it, my family and I certainly will not be without it. I have even gone so far as to send some of it to my mother in Poland, Europe."

Gratefully yours,
Mrs. Anna Kiell,
77 Wolcott Terrace, Newark, N. J.

Perhaps you know what a terrible affliction constipation is. Blighting wherever it thrives. Ruining health. Marring beauty. Causing headaches, back pains, foul breath, loss of sleep—indeed, leading to more than forty serious diseases.

But did you know it can be easily relieved by a pleasant cereal food? Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is guaranteed to bring relief. Eat two tablespoonfuls daily—chronic cases, with every meal. Serve with milk or cream—fruits or honey added. Use in cooking. At grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Italy Witnesses First Execution

LUCCA, Italy, Oct. 19.—On a grassy plot behind the ancient cemetery of Ponte Buggiano, Italy, Thursday, witnessed the first legal execution since the establishment of the kingdom 70 years ago.

Seated in a chair, to which his body was strapped, and with his eyes blindfolded, Michaele Della Maggiora, a communist and sworn foe of Fascism, was shot to death by a firing squad.

Parisian Cafes Are Interesting

Serve Steaks And Chops Grilled Over Fires Of Grape Vine Twigs

DO NOT FEED GUESTS ON PICTURESQUENESS

Copyright 1928 by The New Castle News.

PARIS, Oct. 19.—The first rule of most gastronomes in Paris is to avoid every restaurent that wears a rafter-ed Norman facade and calls itself a Rotisserie, an Hostellerie, or an Auberge. In a general way the rule is a good one and particularly when there is a red brick fire-place in the main dining-room, hung with copper ket-tles, when the wine is served in brass or wooden pitchers ,and when the windows are, like the napkins and table cloths, made of red-and-white checkered linen.

But this rule, like most others, has its exceptions, and some of these ex-ceptions are so important that I some times wonder whether it would not be better to sacrifice the rule entirely rather than be misled by it into avoiding them.

There is for example the Rotisserie du Grand Veneur, in the Rue De-mours. This place has all the outward appearance of feeding its guests en-tirely on picturesqueness. But the ap-pearance is deceptive. There is no better place to eat. And here you can get steaks and chops grilled over a fire of grapevine-twigs—which is quite the only way to grill meat for those who have tried it once.

Another notable exception in the other end of Paris, is the Auberge du Beau Noir, behind Les Halles. Here again we have all the paraphernalia of second-rate romance in the way of decoration. But for twenty francs —about 75 cents—you have hors d'oeuvres of pleasing and generous variety, cold lobster with mayon-naise, roast capon or other fowl, cheese and desert. A few francs ex-tra procures a pitcher of delicious white or red wine.

There is also the Belle Aurore in the Rue Gomboust, where the hors d'oeuvre include caviar and 12 kinds of cold sausage. All these places are comparatively new and managed by zealous proprietors. Some day per-haps they will be sold to a syndicate and will then lapse from their ex-ceptional status into the banality of so many others of their type.

Aviator Visits Scene Of First German Landing

Chamberlin Is Feted By People Of Kottbus, Where Ocean Flight Ended

Clarence D. Chamberlin, who spoke at The Cathedral last spring under the auspices of the New Castle Cham-ber of Commerce, is now in Germany, touring the country, according to press dispatches.

Mr. Chamberlin on Thursday flew in an airplane to Kottbus, where he first landed the Columbia last year after his flight from New York. The airman was dined by the municipality and received an enthusiastic ovation from the people.

The aviator flew to New Castle, it will be remembered, in a baby plane. This year, while touring Germany, he is using a Loening amphibian.

Dog Rides Plane To Cure Deafness

Results Are Not Known, To Get Another Treatment In Near Future

(International News Service)

BALTIMORE, Oct. 19.—Chess has been given his first airplane ride in an effort to cure him of deafness. He is a Chesapeake Bay dog two years old.

Dr. J. W. Spranklin veterinarian, 104th Medical regiment accompanied the dog on the flight. He read in a medical journal a plane ride had cur-ed a dog of faulty hearing.

It is not known whether the trip was beneficial. Chess still appears to be deaf to calls that attract other dogs. The veterinarian said that when the supports of the plane sung against the air on the downward slope Chess howled. He either heard the whizzing sound or felt the vibra-tion of the air currents against him, Spranklin said.

Anyway Chess is due for another air treatment soon.

KANE, Pa., Oct. 19. — Three years ago to the day after the well was spudded in at LaMont a few miles south of Kane the deep test well of the United Natural Gas company was 7,907 feet deep, the deepest ten-inch at the scene of the thrilling operations well in the world. There was nothing to indicate that the United Natural is entering upon its fourth year of labor on the well which so far has produced nothing but scientific data.

The well was drilled for that pur-pose and consequently the backers are not disappointed over the failure to get a "strike." Rumors current are that drilling will be halted the next time the drillers encounter trouble at the well.

Numerous fishing jobs have been completed in the past in order that drilling could be continued but now it is thought that the well will be abandoned with the next indication of trouble.

Governor Makes Statements On New Bond Issues

At Least Four Are Necessary, Is Belief Of John S. Fisher

OUTLINES VIEWS IN PUBLIC LETTER

Highway Department Needs Funds For New Bridges And Streets

By WILLIAM B. BROWN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HARRISBURG, Oct. 19.—Because of the present financial condition of the Commonwealth at least four of the proposed bond issues are unnecessary, Governor John S. Fisher believes. While he does not commit himself to the other one—the proposed $50,000,000 issue for the Department of Highways—the governor believes that additional revenue will be necessary to maintain constant expansion of the road system.

The governor's views were outlined in a letter to Alba B. Johnson, president of the State Chamber of Commerce. The governor's letter was in reply to one from Johnson in which the latter asked for full information regarding each of the proposed loans.

Information Supplied.

The governor discussed each of the loans in turn, outlining just what has been done during his administration and making definite promises regarding what he believes possible in the future without any money from bond issues. In each case he emphasized the necessity of "good business practice" in the development and execution of any building or land acquisition program.

In no case did the governor say, "I am against this loan." He merely supplied information regarding each. In previous discussions regarding the proposed bond issues, which if all were passed would obligate the state for $138,000,000, the governor has deplored the misinformation which has been circulated concerning them.

In his letter to Johnson he explained that he had delayed answering so that the information which he gave might be accurate and up to the minute.

Penn State Discussed.

The governor reminded Johnson that each of the amendments was proposed prior to his administration and that he dealt with facts as they now exist.

In regard to the proposed issue of $8,000,000 for The Pennsylvania State College the governor said that the last legislature appropriated $1,000,000 for new construction there and that was supplemented by another million dollars donated by friends of the institution.

This was provided, the governor pointed out, "for a recreation building, a badly needed infirmary, a sheep barn, a veterinary hospital, a poultry brooder house, an engineering building, and an addition to the Pond Chemical Laboratory." Plans also are being prepared for the Grange dormitory, another men's dormitory and the botany building.

The governor said he is prepared to include in the next budget sufficient money to continue the building program "on even a greater scale."

Regarding the proposed issue of $25,000,000 to acquire additional forest lands, the governor reviewed the work that has been done during his administration, both by the Department of Forests and Waters and the State Game Commission. Both purchase lands.

Forest Purchases.

Purchase of the Cook Forest Reservation at a cost to the state of $450,000 the governor termed one of a "special nature" and a demand which is not likely to be repeated. The department also has purchased from a $500,000 appropriation by the last legislature, 153,305 acres. An additional 600,000 acres have been offered but could not have been purchased economically because of the physical limitations even if money had been available, the governor said.

The Game Commission meanwhile has purchased 79,877 acres and holds under advisement 25,181 acres more.

Budget recommendations to continue a like policy during the next biennium were promised by the governor.

The last legislature appropriated $1,000,000 for the construction of new armories, and of that amount $96,000 yet remains unexpended. Nine armories have been built and a similar program can be continued during the coming biennium, the governor said.

Welfare Work

Considerable space was devoted to the situation in the Department of Welfare whose officers, backed by an active civilian organization and considerable publicity, have been active in pushing through the proposed $50,000,000 issue for State institutions. The governor cited each institution that has received legislative appropriations for improvements and new construction, and told exactly how much in each instance remains unexpended.

In making his promise regarding the future for the welfare institutions the governor was emphatic. He wrote:

"I am warranted in assuring you that in the next biennium we can provide all the money from the General Fund necessary to continue the program of repairing and building as rapidly as can be done to conform with good business."

Highways Different.

The governor then justifies his stand in each instance by saying that he is advised by the fiscal officers and the budget secretary that there will be a $25,000,000 surplus in the general fund at the close of the present biennium.

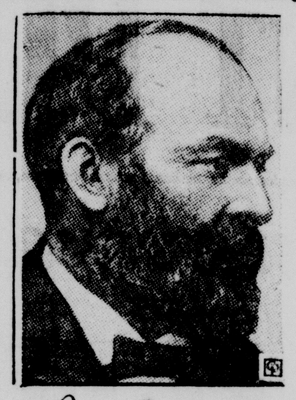
"The highway problem gives rise to a somewhat different situation," the governor wrote. Regarding future construction the governor used the estimates of the Department of Highways which bases possible expenditures on permanent type costs. On that basis the 1,200 miles added by the last legislature in what was called the "omnipork bill" will cost $50,000,000 or $60,000,000 if permanently improved.

The real need of additional funds for the Department as the governor sees it is the acquisition of county bridges and city streets which form integral parts of the state highways. Bills for that purpose passed by the last legislature were vetoed only because of lack of funds, the governor asserted. In addition he pointed to the need of reconstructing 1,500 miles of highway which have become worn out, and unsuited to present day needs.

Picking Presidents

1880: Another Dark Horse Election

By CHARLES L. MULLIGAN
Written for Central Press and New Castle News



J. A. Garfield

Garfield is the historic example of the dark horse. He attended the 1880 Republican convention at Chicago pledged to John Sherman, who had been Hayes' secretary of the treasury and who was Ohio's choice for the presidency. Garfield, in fact, made the nominating speech for Sherman. The "Stalwarts," principally from New York, labored mightily to land a third nomination for General Grant, who led on 35 ballots. Blaine and Sherman tagged along in the voting day after day, with Garfield getting one vote, then two, then one, on each ballot after the first—just enough to keep his name in. Then came the landslide, and to the enormous chagrin of his friend Sherman, Garfield was named.

One of the Stalwarts, Chester Alan Arthur, of New York, who had been removed from the office of collector of the port of New York by President Hayes, was named for vice president. It was during a sensational row over appointments, featured by resignation of Conkling and Platt, of New York, from the senate, that President Garfield, after less than four months in office, was assassinated, and Arthur became the second vice president to be lifted into the White House by a tragedy.

Garfield and Arthur had no easy task in defeating the Democratic candidate, Winfield Scott Hancock (another dark horse) and William H. English, who, as usual, had the support of the solid south and who profited by a stock scandal charge against Garfield.

A Greenback party was in the field, headed by James B. Weaver, of Iowa. It polled so large a vote that Garfield had no actual majority of the popular vote. The electoral vote was as follows:

James A. Garfield, Ohio, and Chester A. Arthur, New York, Republicans, 214; Winfield S. Hancock, Pennsylvania, and William H. English, Indiana, 155.

With Certain disputes straightened out, the popular vote stood: Garfield, 4,449,053; Hancock, 4,442,030; Weaver, 307,306.

(This is the twenty-fourth of a series of 35 digests of presidential campaigns. The twenty-fifth will be: "1884: A Long Republican Rule Ends.")

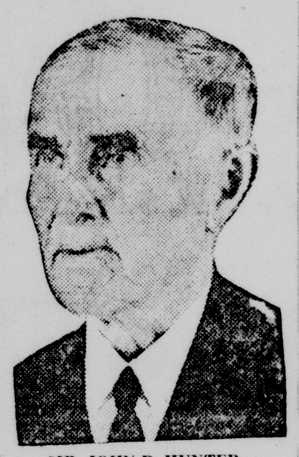
SEVEN DOCTORS FAILED: KONJOLA BROUGHT RELIEF

Two Years Of Stomach Misery Terminated By Powerful New Medicine.



MR. JOHN B. HUNTER

Like life-giving rain after a long drouth; like sunshine after the storm, Konjola, the new medicine, is proving a boon and a blessing to scores of sufferers, in New Castle and vicinity. Daily the Konjola Man is telling eager questioners about this wonderful remedy for troubles for the victims of the dreaded rheumatism and neuritis. Those who suffer are invited—urged—to see the Konjola Man at the Love & Megown Drug Store, 204 Washington Street, New Castle. Tell him your symptoms; he will show you what Konjola has done for hundreds who once suffered as you do, and who are now well. Read, for instance the statement Mr. John B. Hunter, 1116 Dewey Avenue, this city, made to the Konjola Man.

"You can imagine", said Mr. Hunter, beaming with new health and new interest in life," what I think of Konjola when I tell you that it restored me to health after seven doctors failed to do me the least bit of good. For two years I suffered from stomach trouble. Every bit of food I ate laid like a rock in the pit of my stomach, causing terrible pains. Constipation developed, and the strongest of laxatives were necessary. Finally even these failed partially, and I was in a serious condition.

"An acquaintance told me about Konjola, and though I was about disgusted with two years of failure, I thought I might as well take one more chance. Well, two bottles of this new medicine removed all my troubles. Think of that—after doctoring for two years without result except expense. I am better and stronger already than I was before my stomach trouble started, and you can use my name to anyone who suffers as I did. I'm certainly strong for Konjola".

Reports of quick permanent and surprising recoveries like this are old stories to the Konjola Man; he hears them every day, for the delighted users of Konjola are always so grateful for quick and, in many cases, unexpected relief, that they come back to tell what Konjola has meant to their health and happiness. It is only reasonable to presume that what Konjola has done for countless thousands of others it will do for you. All Konjola asks is the privilege of making you well.

The Konjola Man is at the Love & Megown Drug Store, 204 East Washington Street, New Castle, where he is daily meeting the public and introducing and explaining the merits of this remedy.

Foochow's Fame As Tea Port Returns

Has Staged Come Back As One Of Greatest Ports In Far East

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Famous for its sweet-smelling tea, Foochow, China, is reported to have staged a comeback as one of the world's greatest tea ports, according to the National Geographic Society.

"The steep slopes of Fukien Province, which bowed to the vast plantations of Ceylon and Japan nearly two decades ago, are again covered with thriving tea bushes," the Society said. "Tea-laden boats on the Min recall the days when the Yankee clippers cleared Foochow with cargoes of fragrant leaves destined for American teapots."

The Min river was not opened to foreign shipping until 1661. After that year, Foochow's annual output of tea alone reached the 100,000,000 mark and it makes a fair bid to repeat this record.

Officials Warn Against Notes, Etc., In College Students' Laundry Bags

"Once more the season of the year when young people leave home for higher institutions of learning is here," said a New Castle postal official today. "And with the return of this season comes the return of the extensive use of the mails for the students' suit cases, laundry bags and other supplies from home."

This condition arises every year, according to the authority, and is one which causes all sorts of misunderstandings. Not merely the sending of the parcels cause the unnecessary labor, expense and criticism, but mainly the unauthorized written matter that is sometimes sent along with the package.

Postmasters at college and university towns report that in many cases the bags and others contain note books of school work, old letters, memoranda books and magazines bearing marginal notes, on which postage at the fourth class rate is only prepaid. Such parcels are rated up according to their classification and the deficient postage collected on delivery.

Articles for mailing at less than the first class rate of postage contain much written matter that is not permissable. Persons are asked to make note of this and put a stop to such practice.

One postmaster in a college town states that sometimes the deficient postage on parcels amounts to from $2 to $12 and that this works a hardship on the students.

Local authorities request persons to avoid this practice should they be partly responsible for it. Everyone is asked to cooperate and make the service more satisfactory and avoid the uncalled for labor, expense and criticism.

Two Hunters Are Reported Wounded On First Day Out

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Oct. 19.—The opening of the hunting season Thursday was given as the direct cause of two men being wounded by accidental shots in the territory of Carlisle.

J. C. Brown of this city was treated at the Carlisle hospital for injuries suffered when he was sprayed by a stray charge while hunting near Carlisle.

George A. Garman of Carlisle was more seriously injured, having been peppered over the body with a charge fired from a distance while he was hunting near the same spot.

Discuss Matter Of Sale Of Milk

Wholesale Station May Be Established For Farmers At New Wilmington

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Oct. 19. — Meeting to discuss the advisability of uniting to sell milk through a wholesale plant to be established here by a Pittsburgh Milk Co., many of the farmers in this vicinity have favorably considered the proposition. The farmers in event of taking the proposition will take no part in the plant formed except to agree to do business through it.

A meeting is to be held this afternoon in the local Community House and another at the Amish school house this evening to further discuss the establishing of such a dairy station in the college town.

Following a meeting here recently some of the women of the town have organized themselves into a gym class which is led by Miss Stewart of the New Castle Y. W. C. A. The class meets every Monday at 4 o'clock.

Wednesday afternoon, the Women's Missionary Society of the local United Presbyterian church met in the church parlor. Mr. R. W. Dinsmore presided at the meeting.

A meeting in the form of a weiner roast is to be held this evening by the Wilmington Grange members.

After spending several days with her friend, Mrs. J. A. Lininger of New Wilmington, Mrs. E. J. Milhiser of Waterloo, Iowa, continued a trip East.

Start Basketball Practices At Y. M.

Basketball has started in earnest at the local Y. W. C. A. floor. Every day various players from teams here are working out and getting in trim for the approaching season and from all appearances there will be some good teams performing before New Castle fans this coming season.

There will be several league teams throughout the city and plans have been made known from several business organizations to the effect that they will have teams representing them in the field.

Already, states Walter Kirker, physical director of the Y. M. C. A., several teams have made extensive plans in their organization and have started pre-season practice.

East New Castle Grange Will Meet

The next regular meeting of the East New Castle Grange will take place Thursday evening, October 25, at the East New Castle Grange Hall. The Pleasant Hill Grange will have charge of the lecture hour.

A Hallowe'en social is also scheduled for the East New Castle Grange hall Friday evening, October 26.

Rural Schools Call For Concert Tickets

Indications are at the present time that not only city school children and others will be those in attendance at the coming marine band concert on November 12. Numerous requests for tickets are being received daily from rural schools according to Frank L. Burton, in charge of arrangements for the affair.

Mr. Burton expects that county students will attend the concert in great numbers.

HOW TO FIGHT EXCESS FAT

There are hard ways, like starvation, but fewer and fewer employ them. There is a pleasant way, modern and scientific, which combats the cause. A vast number of people now use it. And the slender figures now seen everywhere are largely due to that.

That method is embodied in Marmola prescription tablets. People have used them for 20 years—millions of boxes of them. And everybody, in almost every circle, sees the change. New beauty, new health, new vitality.

Each box of Marmola contains the formula, also the scientific reasons for results. So users have no fear of harm. Learn the facts about Marmola, because of the good it has done. Ask your druggist—now—for a $1 box with the book. Then decide.

Ellwood City Teacher Gives Site Of First Voting Precinct

In a recent issue of The News an article appeared concerning the first voting precincts of what is now Lawrence county. The boundaries of the precincts were set out in the statutes-at-large of January, 1803, and the place of voting for one of the precincts was established in the home of Ananias Allen.

Curious to ascertain where the home of Ananias Allen was, The News asked if anyone knew. A. Kirk Thompson, well known educator of Ellwood City, has answered the query with the following article. Now that the voting place for the one precinct is established, can any one say where the other one was, the home of Robert Johnson?

The article by Mr. Thompson follows:

In Saturday's issue of The New Castle News there appeared a very interesting article concerning the voting precinct in the northeast corner of Beaver county as it existed in 1803. The place of voting was given as the home of Ananias Allen and the question was asked, "Where was the home of Ananias Allen?"

In Durant's History of Lawrence County published in 1877 we have the following concerning Ananias Allen:

"The first settler on the land where Wurtemburg now stands was probably Ananias Allen, who came about 1796-7 and built a grist mill on nearly the same spot where the present grist mill stands. The mill was built of logs and had one run of 'country store' called a 'bull-head'. This was a famous mill in its day and had customers from as far as New Castle, the Allen mill having been built before there was a mill at that place. In this mill the first meetings of the Slippery Rock Presbyterian congregation were held and 'Allen's Mill" was well known in the region around. Allen built the first house on the ground where the town now stands."

The present grist mill, referred to by Durant was destroyed by fire about 30 years ago. "The same spot," in his refernce, was not far from the new concrete bridge on the improved road leading through Wurtemburg and near the residence of the late James Badger.

Shoes 36 Years Old Kept For Comfort

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Oct. 19—Thirty-six years with the same pair of shoes is the record on which Christ Moeller, 86 years old, says he will stand.

"They are the most comfortable shoes I have ever had," Moeller insists.

The shoes are made of wood, size 6 by 14 inches. They can be used for house slippers, work shoes and Sunday shoes, the wearer says.

Gene Tunney May Become Author In Later Day Life

(International News Service)

LONDON, Oct. 19.—Gene Tunney may turn his hand to writing when he and his bride, "Polly" Lauder-Tunney, settle down in their Mayfair house in London and establish their literary salon.

The Tunneys are expected in London about the end of this month. As there is deep mutual admiration between the former heavyweight and George Bernard Shaw, it is anticipated that the noted satirist will be one of the lions gathered in the Tunney salon when the receptions are held.

For Better and Cleaner Heat Burn Youngstown Domestic

COKE

Coal in its most efficient form

IF you have never burned coke you can't realize how much better and cleaner it is than coal. Once you have burned coke you will never return to coal.

Coke will give you a greater degree of heating comfort than can possibly be obtained with coal. It burns slowly with a hot, uniform bed of fire which is not continually flaring up and dying down. It requires less "furnace tending"—less stoking, less shaking down, less draft adjustment. It is a cleaner fuel because the smoke and soot-forming elements and other volatile matter have been removed.

For better warmth with a new degree of cleanliness burn coke—Youngstown Domestic Coke.

P. & O. Company To Make Many Extensive Improvements Here

Electric Officials And Club Men Gather Around Good Dinner At Country Club

Object Of Meeting Is To Promote Better Acquaintanceship Among Citizens And P. & O.

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 19. — Two hundred representatives of the Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs and Chamber of Commerce gathered at the Ellwood Country club Thursday evening for a dinner-meeting honoring officials of the P. and O. company. This company recently purchased the electrical rights of the Harmony company, and the trend of many of the talks was that already a difference can be seen in the various dealings connected with Ellwood City.

Mr. O'Donnel, treasurer of the P. and O. company was introduced by master of ceremonies L. L. Gelbach, and he expressed entire satisfaction with present arrangements between Ellwood City and his company, and further stated that the company planned to spend about $400,000 in improvements here next year.

A five piece orchestra furnished music for the meeting, and J. W. Offutt, representing the Chamber; Edward Mackasek, the Rotary, and Charles Carbeau, the Kiwanis, all gave short talks all stressing the fact that the prosperity of a power company linked up with the community it served.

The entire meeting was an effort to promote good fellowship between the business men of the town and officials of the P. and O. company, and to all appearances the effort was most successful.

Hospital Nearing Completion Here

Outlines Of New Addition To Local Hospital Begin To Take On Finished Lines

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 19. — The addition to the local hospital, which was begun this summer, is beginning to assume finished proportions, as it nears completion on the exterior. The brick work is finished up to the fourth floor, and the roof will be the next part of the program.

The addition, when completed, will be the most modern that can be purchased, and is made possible by the large allotment from the Community Chest Drive each year. The estimated cost, when finished is about $135,000. There will be new wards, complete operating quarters, an additional elevator, as well as many other new and modern equipment. It is not possible to estimate exactly when the building will be ready for occupancy, but local people have already been solicited to furnish rooms, or endow beds in the wards. Many local organizations are planning to help in this way, and The Womans club is promoting a White Elephant sale in the near future to assist in the pledge to the new addition made by the club.

Small Boy Struck On Street Thursday

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 19.—Pedestrians and other motorists received an unpleasant thrill yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock when a small lad, who was playing with another lad, ran directly in the path of a coupe car driven by an elderly man, and was struck and badly shaken up.

He was picked up by a truck driver and taken to a doctor before the spectators could gather their wits together. The doctor fixed up the child's bruises, he seemed to be all right, and they left after thanking the physician. The name of the child or the driver could not be learned, as no record was made of the accident.

See Urgent Need For Zelienople Ellwood Road

Completion Of Strip Of Perry Highway To Zelienople Adds To Urge

ZELIENOPLE, Oct. 19.—Anxious to close the gap and finish this part of the job while the spell of good weather was still on, road builders for Paul R Beals of Buffalo, who has the contract, kept on with their work last Sunday and early in the afternoon finished laying concrete on the Perry highway between Zelienople and the Allegheny county line.

The opening of this entire stretch of road in a few weeks will mark an epoch for the Zelienople-Harmony district and for the territory through which it passes. The distance constructed by Mr. Beals is 7.3 miles. The first work toward constructing this stretch was performed in January and has been prosecuted since as weather conditions and other circumstances permitted. The construction of the road, however, was accomplished in 28 per cent of the time that was allotted for it.

The construction of this section of the road required the moving of 57,000 cubic yards of earth. All the construction material was trucked from Zelienople and as many as 30 trucks were in operation at one time. The material used included 30,255 barrels of cement, 11,700 tons of sand, 16,905 tons of stone and 225 tons of steel.

When the road is opened distance and time between the Zelienople-Harmony district and Pittsburgh will be materially reduced. The connecting up of this link is already making more urgent the completion of the road between Zelienople and Ellwood City. At a recent meeting in Ellwood City at which county commissioners of Beaver and Lawrence counties were present this road came in for prominent mention as one of the desired links to be closed. To accomplish it soon, however, the thought seemed to prevail that it was necessary for the road bond issue amendment to carry.

That section of the Perry highway from the Jackson township line north of Harmony to Middle Lancaster has been used by the traveling public the past week, although the berm work is still to be completed. A fitting celebration marking the construction of this road Middle Lancaster to Allegheny county is a matter that is now being discussed in Zelienople and Harmony circles.

GREAT AUDITORIUM IS NEARLY FILLED

So powerful was the appeal of Evangelist C. H. Erickson last evening, who discussed the necessity of choosing between sin or the pleasures of the world and Jesus Christ and everlasting happiness throughout eternity, that there was an outpouring of fervor and religious enthusiasm manifested by the immense throng of people who almost filled Everybody's Tabernacle, South Mill between Davision and Friendship streets, that has not been equalled previously during the several weeks of the evangelistic campaign in progress there.

Showing that after all, there is nothing beneficial in the life spent in pleasure seeking,, sin and ease, Evangelist Erickson made it clear that the only real happiness in this and the life to come was derived by giving up the things of the world and following in the footsteps of Jesus Christ.

Twenty-Four Hit Trail.

When the invitation was given to take a stand for Christ and the better things of life here and hereafter, 24 persons walked up the paths to the altar, which on this occasion proved too small to accommodate those making the response necessitating the extension of the altar prayer and kneeling bench.

Evangelist Erickson took as his text the 25th verse of the eleventh chapter of Hebrews, which refers to Moses and reads: "Choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season."

He said among other things that "Moses made the choice, that meant everything to him in Eternity. He cast aside the call of things of wealth to make sure of his future life. It behooves us to follow his example.

"Money, pleasure and the things of the world do not satisfy. Money does not uplift you, nor does it provide that lasting joy. In fact the more you have of it the more you seem to want unless you have felt and appreciated that appeal of the Holy Spirit.

"Christ, the Son of God, gives far more than the pleasures of world. They say we do not have caste or class in this fair land, yet we do. There will be no caste or class, no difference among men, if we choose Jesus Christ as our saviour.

"We are choosing for eternity. That's what Moses did when he forsook the wealth and pleasures of the king's palace and shared the lot of his people, a people in bondage .

"When we stay in sin to the finish, death is the only result. Sin is the cause of all trouble in the world. Following it means unhappiness. He who mocks the Bible and makes fun of its teachings will pay. He accepts sin for eternity and death is his. Therefore choose now, this day whom and what you will follow."

Stream to Altar.

This appeal had its effect and the people streamed to the altar from every section of the big tabernacle as the Alliance quintette led in the singing of "Come While the Spirit is Calling."

When all had answered the altar call the entire audience led by the quintette sang "I Surrender All" and "Oh How I Love Jesus." The increased fervor of the meetings was demonstrated by the singing at this time the tabernacle ringing with the most effective congregational singing of the entire campaign so far.

Then followed the anointing of the sick, the mained. That there is a growing result of the prayer for the healing of the afflicted was again demonstrated in a rather remarkable manner.

As is usual the evening service Thursday was opened with an enthusiastic song service led by Mrs. Erickson, wife of the evangelist and there was a noticeable increase in the efforts of the congregation along those lines. The Alliance quintette was heard with unusual delight in new numbers.

There is an ever increasing interest in the morning meetings it was announced by Evangelist Erickson in announcing the meeting for Friday morning. He also announced that there would be another special sermon Friday evening on the subject of "Healing." Saturday evening will be special request night and there will be something of special interest to all.

Shooting Of Car Results In Suit

Damage Suit Against Youngstown Officers; May File Suit Here

Recently quite a stir was created in front of The News office when a bullet-ridden car stopped on Mercer street and police began investigating. The occupants of the car had disappeared and quite a stir was raised in the section. It developed that the car belonged to William Schegel Jr. and Frank Cunningham of Coitsville, O., and that the car had been shot with 30 bullet holes by the Youngstown police.

Suit has been filed by these young men and William Schegel Sr. for $70,000 against Police Officers Charles Richmond, Howard C. Faust, Eugene F. Doyle and Stephen Leshnock in Youngstown. It is charged that the officers shot the car full of holes and that they dragged the lads from the car, bruising and beating them even after identification. Police thought, they say ,that the boys were criminals.

The story goes that the boys when pursued did not stop at Coitsville, fearing that they were being attacked by bandits. They drove to New Bedford over the state line.

William Schegel Sr. was in New Castle yesterday and states that he will attempt to bring a suit in the Lawrence county courts, as the scene of action took place in this county.

Infant Death Rate Is Now Cut In Half

Mortality Rate Of Infants Is Higher In Rural Communities, Figures Show

By ARTHUR C. WIMER
Special Washington News Correspondent

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 19.—The infant born in Pennsylvania today has a chance of living to reach his first birthday almost twice as great as the probability of life granted to the infant born in the state twelve years ago, an analysis of figures presented by the department of labor reveals.

In 1915, an average of 110 infants out of every 1,000 born in Pennsylvania died before reaching the age of one year. Last year, only 89 out of every 1,000 born in the state died as infants under one year. These figures reveal that the likelihood of a child born in Pennsylvania dying before reaching his first birthday is now only slightly more than one-half as great as the death hazard to Pennsylvania babies twelve years ago.

Rural Pennsylvania is less healthful for infants than are cities and towns of the state. The infant death rate for cities and towns averages 81 deaths per 1,000 births while for the rural districts of the state the infant mortality rate is reported as being 83 deaths per 1000 births, revealing that the infant born in the urban communities has two more chances in a thousand of living to be one year old than has the infant born in the country.

Tired Feeling Made Husband's Life A Burden

Butler Road Man All Run-Down; Wife Says Ten Herbs Relieved Ailments

"My husband, Mr. Mifflin R. Weatherby, Butler Road, Route 1, New Castle, has used Ten Herbs, and I want to tell you some of the benefits he has derived from it," was the recent statement of Mrs. Jennie E. Weatherby, to the Ten Herbs Man, who is at Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., 30 East Washington Street, this city, where he is daily demonstrating this great natural medicine.

MRS. JENNIE E. WEATHERBY

"He had suffered with indigestion for some time," Mrs. Weatherby continued. "He lost his appetite, and food caused gas and pains. He did not sleep well. His liver did not work as it should, and this caused him to have dizzy spells, headaches and sallow skin. There were pains in his back, and he had to arise several times at night. He was in a badly run-down condition. He was in need of something to cleanse his system, give him strength and do away with the tired feeling that made life a burden.

"He read about Ten Herbs in the paper and made up his mind to try your medicine. From the very first bottle he felt good effects. Indigestion gradually disappeared. His appetite is good now and food digests properly. Pains and gas are gone, and he gets a good night's sleep. His liver is active, so that bilious feeling has passed away. His skin is clear and healthy looking. Headaches have become less frequent, and dizziness and languor have been ended. The pains in his back and loins have been greatly relieved, and he no longer has to arise at night. Constipation does not bother him like it did. He really looks like a man in the 'pink of health'."

Many throughout this section are using and recommending Ten Herbs for indigestion, biliousness, nervousness, constipation, pains and aches, and run-down condition.

The Ten Herbs Man is at Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., 30 East Washington Street, this city, where he is daily meeting the public and explaining the merits of this medicine.

Good Work Being Done In Junior High Department

Science Students Are Given Thorough Training At Washington

General science is making rapid headway at the new George Washington Junior High school, under the direction of Ralph Lingerman, teacher of science. Parents of the students enrolled in this subject are cordially invited to visit the classrooms to get a better understanding of the procedure in this department.

Mr. Lingerman has introduced a special plan for instructing the boys and girls of his classes. One-third of their required work consists of the careful presentation of experiments and another in transcribing the experiments with complete drawings. Another third consists of a contract, consisting of mimeographed sheets on which are research problems covering a full unit of work. This material is arranged so as to take into consideration the individual child.

Mr. Lingerman fully realizes that no two students are alike and this is the basis for the plan used. The matter is arranged in three levels, the A level for students who have reached a high standard of research on the unit. They are given the opportunity to use the splendid new library in the school. The B level consists of average questions of average difficulty, and the C level consists of minimum material of minimum difficulty.

Students of the 9A class spent six weeks in carrying out just one unit. High scores were obtained by 13 of the pupils in this grade. A report of the 9B results will probably appear in The News later on.

Ludendorff's Cook Sues Field Marshal For $16 Lessons

(International News Service)

MUNICH, Oct. 19. — "Too many lessons spoiled my cook." Gen. Ludendorff, who may be remembered as one of Kaiser Wilhelm's field marshals, asserted this in court where he is being sued for $16 by his chief skillet-wielder Heinrich.

Testifying that Heinrich was worse than any chief of mess in the late imperial army Ludendorff said he asked his cook to take a course on how to prepare food.

Heinrich averred he took sixty lessons at 25 cents a lesson after which he returned to the Ludendorff kitchen with a diploma and a cookbook. After the first meal, he testified, Ludendorff said the diploma was a scrap of paper and utterly valueless as a testimony to Heinrich's ability.

Heinrich was discharged, but he maintained that Ludendorff ought to pay for the cooking lessons, while his lawyer characterized the former field marshal as a "stingy old thing" receiving a $5,000 pension from the German republic.

Ludendorff counter-charged that Heinrich was exceedingly wasteful. The case is under advisement.

Eckener And Crew Honored Today In National Capital

Graf Zeppelin Commander And Crew Reach Washington Early Today

SOCIAL FUNCTIONS WILL BE FEATURE

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Dr. Hugo Eckener and officers of the Graf Zeppelin came to Washington today to receive from President Coolidge and high government officials the honors and plaudits of a nation for their flight. They arrived from Philadelphia by train, quite in contrast to the fleeting visit last Monday when, aboard the monster liner of the air, they sailed majestically into the National Capital out of a murky sky. Thousands greeted them then, jamming rooftops and streets to catch a glimpse of the Zeppelin, just in from Germany. A badlam of noise soared up to them.

Today, only a small crowd was on hand at the station. But what the early risers lacked in numbers they made up in enthusiasm.

Meet Coolidge

The fliers rode in an automobile procession to the Carlton Hotel where they remained a short time before going to the White House. A distinguished company welcomed the fliers, included were Secretary of Navy Wilbur, Secretary of Interior West, acting Secretary of State Clark, Trubee Davison, Air Secretary of War, E. P. Warner, Air Secretary of Navy, William P. MacCracken, Air Secretary of Commerce, Dr. O. C. Kiep, Charge D'Affaires of the German Embassy, and the White House aides, Col. Osmun Latrobe and Captain Wilson Brown.

In Dr. Eckener's part at the White House were Count Alexander Von Brandenstein-Zeppelin, Count Bradenburg E. A. Lehmann, first officer of the dirigible. Lt. Commander C. E. Rosendahl, commander of the Navy dirigible Los Angeles and Co. Emil D. Herrera, of Spain.

A busy day was arranged for the visitors. It included a trip to Arlington to place a wreath on the tomb of the unknown soldier, airplane and auto sightseeing trips, luncheon by the three air secretaries, a tea and reception by Dr. Kiep, and also a dinner and reception tonight.

For tomorrow a luncheon at the National Press Club and a dinner by Harry Wardman, Washington builder, were on schedule.

Asks What Liquor Plan Is Favored By Governor Smith

Says "Canadian System" Is Meaningless As There Are Many Different Plans

WESTERVILLE, O., Oct. 19.—In the opinion of Dr. Ernest H. Cherrington, general secretary of the World League Against Alcoholism, Governor Alfred E. Smith of New York, the Democratic candidate for the presidency is not a good salesman of political doctrines as such doctrines refer to the prohibition question.

"Governor Smith," Dr. Cherrington's statement says, "talks about the Canadian liquor system, which he says he would like to see adopted in these United States. But Governor Smith fails to state which Canadian system he would like to see adopted for there are several of them.

"As a matter of fact, there is no Canadian system, but there are provincial systems in the nine provinces. Two of the provinces have prohibition. Does Governor Smith mean, when he talks about the Canadian plan the plan which these two provinces have? If not, does he favor the Quebec system, that of British Columbia, that of Manitoba, that of Ontario or that of New Brunswick?

"Does Governor Smith favor the Canadian federal plan which would permit the manufacture of liquor within a state even though that state by his plan should be dry by vote, and does he favor such federal reconstruction of the prohibition as would permit a wet state to ship liquor into a dry state, through the territory of another dry state?

"Undoubtedly Governor Smith in his loose reference to the Canadian liquor system has some particular porvincial system in mind. What particular system is that then? The voters who do not want prohibition to continue have a right to know just what it is the governor is advocating to take the place of prohibition."

Auto Runs Into Balph Ave. Home

Police Investigating Circumstances Surrounding Auto Accident

Police are investigating the circumstances surrounding a car bearing Pennsylvania license 818-013, which was abandoned on Balph avenue last night by the driver after it had been driven into a house on that street, doing considerable damage to the house.

On looking up the license number the police found that the license was listed in the name of M. R. Kalajainen, R. D. No. 6. About noon today a man giving the name of Carl Kalajainen, and stating that he was the brother of the owner of the car, which had been stolen last night, reported at the police station.

The police took the position that he must have been the driver that abandoned the car on Balph avenue after hitting the house there and are conducting their investigation along those lines today. Indications are, the police state, that the owner of the car will be required to pay for the damage done to the house.

VOTING MACHINE

Voting machine demonstration which was to have been given Tuesday and Wednesday of this week will be given in the near future.

A letter from Miss Lula Mosby, demonstrator, and a telegram from manager of the Automatic Registering Machine Company states that Miss Mosby was suddenly taken ill, and confined to bed for several days, hoped to be with us at some future date.

We have had so many inquiries about the voting machine that we hope this demonstration can be put on in the very near future. The county commissioners have most generously offered the use of the lobby at the court house for the demonstration. You will be notified in due time.

HILARIOUS GIVERS

Brass Tacks On The Sunday School Lesson

The Golden Text

By DR. ALVIN E. BELL

Paul's Second Epistle to the Corinthians is a most practical handbook for Christian workers. Our lesson deals with Chapters 8 and 9, in which we have the most sane and spiritual guiding principles ever ennunciated for the raising of church finances.

The first of these guiding principles for Christian giving is that giving is a grace: "The grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia; how that in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded unto the riches of their liberality." These Macedonian Christians needed no high pressure campaign to induce them to give toward the "Near East Relief Fund" of that day for their starving fellow believers in Judea. They required only to know of the need and "to their power, yea and beyond their power, they were willing of themselves, praying us with much entreaty that we would receive the gift, and take upon us the fellowship of the ministering to the saints." So, giving, now as then, depends not upon how much gold one has, but upon how much grace he has. Paul's word to us, as t o the Corinthians is, "See that ye abound in this grace also."

Giving the Acid Test of Love

Paul would tolerate no scheme of coersion in the matter of church finance. He levied no "dues" and assigned no "quotas" or "apportionments." He left it up to each Christian to prove his love to Christ by his gifts to the needy: "I speak not by commandment, but—to prove the sincerity of your love." Folks who "first give their own selves to the Lord" will not need bazaars and oyster suppers, etc., to inveigle them into giving to the Lord's work.

The Cross And Giving

In all this treatise on church finance Paul never gets out of sight of the cross as the great dynamic of all true giving: "For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, thought he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich." The cross must ever be not only the pattern for our giving, but precept and the power. It has been the fountain head of the world's richest streams of benevolence and philanthropy for the past nineteen hundred years. Paul echoes the spirit of Christ's commendation of the widow's mite when he says: "If there be first a willing mind it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not."

A Natural Law in the Realm of Giving

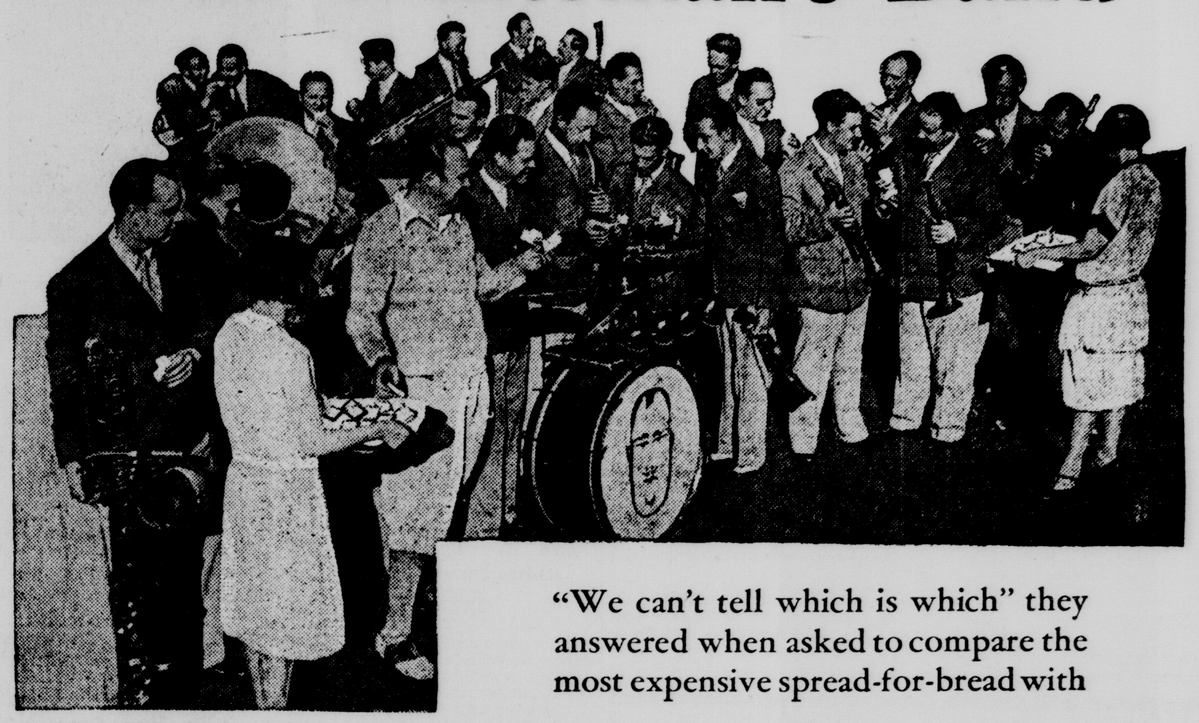
Paul applies nature's law of sowing and reaping to this realm of giving when he says: "He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully. Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver." The word Paul used here for "cheerful" is "hilaros" from which we derive our word "hilarious." Most of us could stand a bit more of this Pauline "hilarity" in our giving to the church and the philanthropic causes of religion associated with or growing out of the church.

Paul closes the section of this letter dealing with Christians giving by returning where he began, to the headwaters of all true giving, as he shouts exaultantly: "Thanks be to God for his unspeakable gift."

("The International Uniform Lesson for October 21st is II Corinthians, 8:1-9; 9:6, 7, 15, the subject being "Christian Stewardship," and the Golden Text, II Corinthians, 8:5: "First they gave their own selves to the Lord.")

Jelke Challenge Flavor Test

Mystifies Paul Whiteman's Band



Here's Paul Whiteman, surrounded by the members of his world-famous band, making the Challenge Flavor Test. Each tasted two slices of bread, one of which was spread with GOOD LUCK and the other with the most expensive spread-for-bread obtainable

"We can't tell which is which" they answered when asked to compare the most expensive spread-for-bread with

JELKE
MARGARINE

Try the Challenge Flavor Test on your own table, as well as in your cooking and baking, and let your family decide. Don't tell them beforehand, but just see how perfectly it works. Thereafter buy and use GOOD LUCK exclusively.

THE members of Paul Whiteman's band, living as they do in the world's finest hotels, are expert judges of good food . . . artists of epicurean tastes.

YET NOT ONE of these twenty-five unrivalled exponents of modern music was able to detect the slightest difference between the flavor of GOOD LUCK and that of the most expensive spread-for-bread.

GOOD LUCK is no ordinary margarine made of inexpensive vegetable oils. It derives its wonderful, rich flavor and its highly nourishing qualities from selected meat products. Yet it costs but a trifle more than common grades . . . very much less than expensive spreads-for-bread.

Challenge Flavor Test reveals a new way to save

McClymonds Case Before Pardon Board

Pardon Board Allows Petition For Rehearing; May Be Held In November

(Special To The News)

HARRISBURG, Pa., Oct. 19. — The board of pardons has announced that it has allowed the petition for the rehearing of Jacob S. McClymonds of Lawrence county. His application for pardon will probably be argued before the board at its November session.

McClymonds was sentenced January 24, 1920, by the Lawrence county court for felonious rape. He was to pay a fine of $50 and be imprisoned for a term of from 13 to 15 years. In March of last year a pardon application was refused.

Must Feed Ewes To Get Good Lamb Crop, Says Agent

Excellent Care Must Be Taken Of Ewes Before Mating Time

At the present time, sheep raising in Lawrence county is being done more extensively than formerly, states county agent, Harold McCulloch, and more wool is being produced by the wool growers each year. They should remember, states McCulloch that the lamb crop depends upon the condition of the ewes at mating time.

"It is advisable," states McCulloch, "to put these ewes in good pasture if it is at all possible, and feed some oats and bran at the rate of three parts of oats and one of bran by weight. It is also advisable to drench the ewes for worms."

"If wool growers of the county will observe these safe guards, they will find a great per centage of an increase in their lamb crop over the ordinary care."

Sheep cannot be left to care for themselves, stated the county agent. They must have all the fine grooming and care that the dairy herds and horses receive to get the best results.

Address Of Sender Should Be Put On Fourth Class Mail

Failure To Observe Regulation Causes Serious Inconveniences

By ARTHUR C. WIMER
Special Washington News Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 19.—The attention of the postmaster of New Castle has been called to the necessity of the sender of fourth-class mail placing a legible return address on all such mail and the postmaster has been requested to notify patrons of this requirement, in a general order sent out by the postoffice department here.

Assistant Postmaster General R. S. Regar states that despite the fact that attention has been repeatedly called to this requirement, postmasters in all parts of the country have continued to accept for mailing parcels which do not bear the sender's name and address. The failure to observe this regulation causes serious inconvenience and embarrassment and leads to much criticism of the postal service, the assistant postmaster states.

Parcels presented for mailing should not be accepted unless they bear both the name and the address of the sender, Mr. Regar warns.

Hoover Books Are In Demand At City Library

Herbert Hoover is the favorite among the political readers at the New Castle public library. So say the librarians, and they should know, especially when there is a constant stream of readers coming into the library on a search for political materials and articles on the two candidates.

Of late there have been many calls for political material at the library, and especially for Herbert Hoover, say librarians. There have been several books written about Hoover in the way of biographies and his work is recorded in many books.

The Democratic candidate receives few calls, say the librarians. There are no books in the library pertaining to him or about him, but one has been ordered to satisfy a few demands.

However, there is a constant demand for Hoover materials. Persons come into the library and want to read something about Hoover. Not about his war work, for it is known to all, but something out of the ordinary, in that they might know more about him.

"Hoover will win," said one librarian, "if it's left up to library patronizers."

A lot of time is wasted by persons who want to prove that the universe was built according to the ideas they have of it.

Marriage Mender Fixes Relations For Chicagoans

Domestic Relations Court Is One Of Most Interesting Places In City

MOST CASES START IN APARTMENT HOMES

Second Generation Of Chinese Do Not Cling As Do Elders Of Race

By IONE QUINBY
Exclusive Central Press Dispatch to The New Castle News

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—One of the most interesting places in Chicago to visit is the court of domestic relations and its department, on the ninth floor of the city hall. This court differs from divorce courts in that shackles are patched here instead of discarded. The woman who hears the complaints of thousands of wives and husbands in a year and hands out "sure fire" advice has never been married herself, but she is considered as authority on wedlock. Her name is Irene Inderrieden and she is called "The Marriage Mender."

Most of the domestic quarrelers in this court are laborers and their wives, or small salaried people. That isn't because poor city folks squabble more than rich ones. Wealthier couples hire a lawyer usually when they get to throwing things and end matters in the divorce court. The poor ones, more often, are just blowing off steam.

The majority of domestic quarrelers in the city are cliff dwellers. That is to say, they live in apartment buildings or flats. Few have homes of their own with a garden in back and a place for the children to play. This ought to ballyhoo the "Own Your Home Idea." A big percentage who need patching up are couples in the first year or two of marriage, who haven't become adjusted to the fact that two cannot live as cheaply as one in the big city and never will, no matter what the advertisements say.

If out-of-towners really want to see how the other half lives in Chicago they will get an eye and ear full in the court of domestic relations. Here you have domesticity and family quarrels in the raw. They are not varnished over like most of the cases that come before divorce judges. The admonition of the judge to a wife who slung hot words at her husband before the bench will give you an idea as to the realism here: "Madam, I must ask you to stop. You are not now in your kitchen!"

Are folks clannish in Chicago? That is, do the Italian born stick to their own kind, the Greeks to the Greek, the Chinese to the Chinese and so on? To a certain extent they do, no matter how long they remain here. It is only natural for a generation or two. Just the other day, however, a lieutenant of the South Park police told a story that set me thinking. He told of the most cosmopolitan "pinch" ever made in his district.

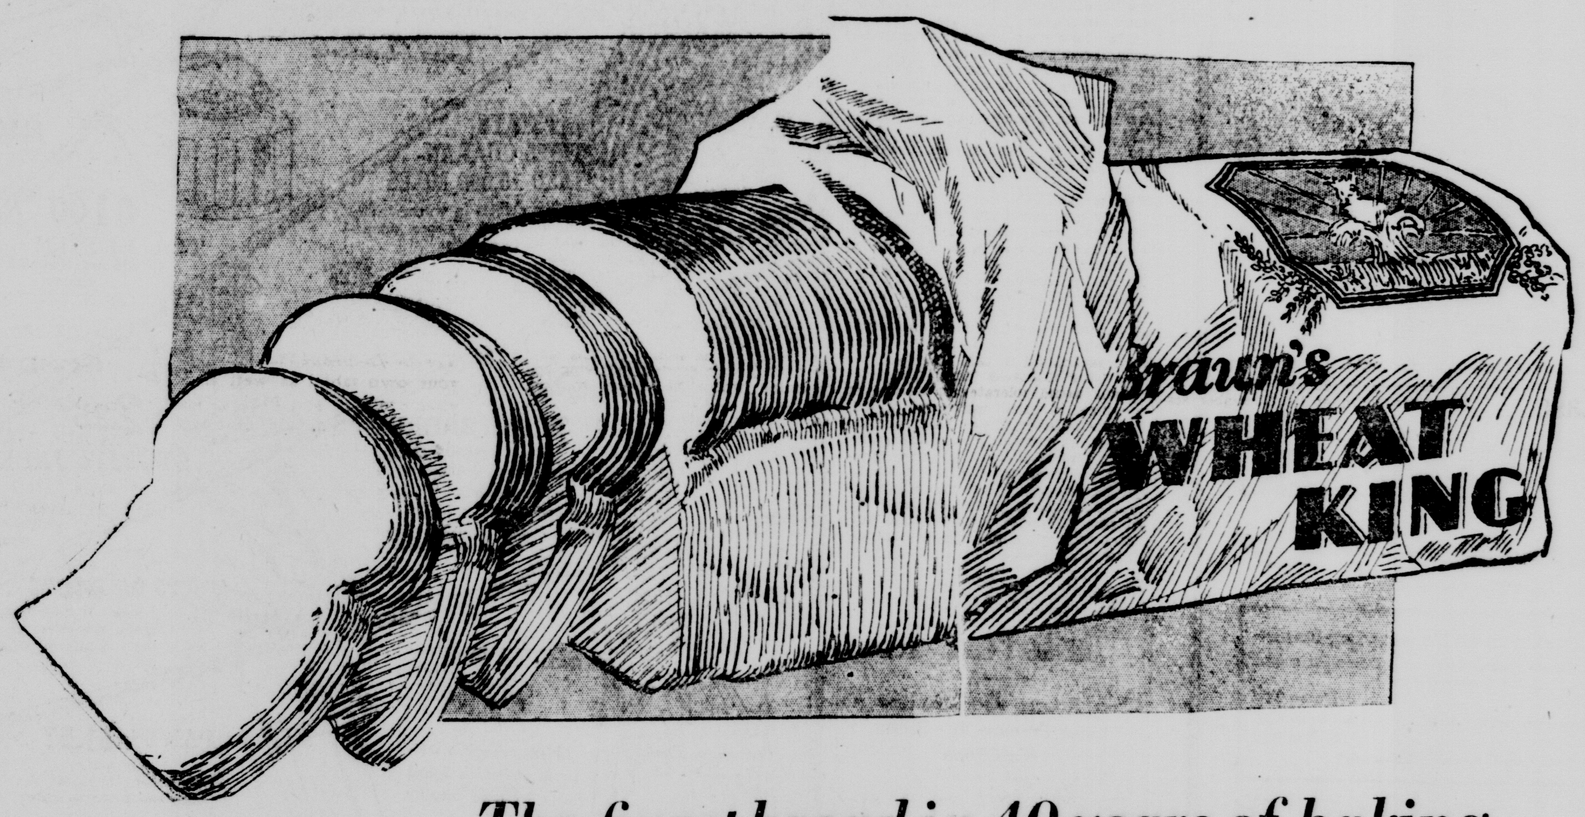
The WHEAT KING



The finest bread in 40 years of baking

STRAIGHT through the city sweeps the news of Braun's newest loaf of bread ... the Wheat King ... the finest we've baked in 40 years of baking good bread.

Neighbors are telling neighbors of this loaf of a lifetime endeavor ... our fortieth anniversary loaf ... the finest of them all.

Overnight, the Wheat King has been welcomed in thousands of homes ... welcomed for its extra goodness, its extra slices that never go begging.

Hundreds of mothers tell us their children are eating more bread than ever before ... the Wheat King has a rich goodness that children can't resist.

One woman says they made most of a meal on bread the first night the Wheat King was served. Slices are so fluffy-fresh, so white and fine of texture, so tasteful, they disappear like tarts.

Have you enjoyed the Wheat King ... the finest loaf in 40 years?

Chestnut Season Is Here; But Crop Is Missing

Chestnut season for Lawrence county is here but the chestnuts are not. A few trees not touched by the blight which has been ravishing chestnut groves in this section of the state for the past 20 years are bearing but the percentage of bearing chestnut trees is very small.

Vending stands on the streets have chestnuts for sale but they report that all of them come from Virginia and other states not as yet touched by the blight.

Farmers report throughout the county that there are no chestnuts. By "no" they mean there are an occasional few here and there but that the crop is not worth mentioning.

Several places in the county there are woods which are in reality chestnut groves. That is, they were at one time. The blight has completely ruined the nut crop and the trees as well and many of these local groves have died out entirely.

Persons from other sections where chestnuts did not abide marveled some years ago while here at the chestnut trees and the nuts. It is thought that it will be but a matter of a few years until Lawrence county folk will have no chestnut trees.

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations Of Interesting Things Around New Castle

This really should have been in yesterday. In fact it was more or less agreed to. But it wasn't, so it's in today.

After a hiatus of some three years Westminster and Grove City resume football relations Saturday afternoon with the battle being staged in Grove City.

Now had the item originated with this column, perhaps the word hiatus would have been left out and the word gap, chasm or something of the same meaning used. But the president of the Alumni Association, whose name will not appear here, insisted that it was a hiatus, and also insisted that every true Westminsterite would understand the meaning of it.

So hiatus it is.

Ever since I was big enough to understand that there was such a thing as war the Westminster-Grove City game has been synonymous with war. Back in the misty past there was a chap named McMahon who coached Westminster, and he was a lineal descendant of Simon Legree, with this exception, that Legree had some charity for an opponent occasionally.

McMahon didn't. His idea was to cripple the opposing team and then put them out of their misery by walking across their faces. In those days in order to play on the Westminster team a player had to forego any human tendencies during football season and revert to his primeval lust to kill.

Those were the days when the game consisted of two halves, with nothing barred save perhaps a blackjack or a stiletto. The center was usually the man mountain on the team, for he was always under the pile. Forward passes were unheard of and anything but a straight line buck was considered effeminate. The victory usually consisted of two elements, the number of points your team scored and the number of cripples the other fellows had.

New Castle was all broken out with officials Thursday. Anything under a congressman hardly rated at all, and even congressmen had hard work getting recognized in the maze of presidents, managers, governors and the like. The Scottish Rite Cathedral was a sort of combination of Washington, Harrisburg and Pittsburgh. A governor, a lieutenant-governor, three congressmen, a justice of the state supreme court, a secretary of labor, a state librarian, a president of a steel company, a president of a coal and coke company and a basketful of general managers and other officials.

The amateur moving picture men had the time of their lives. All they had to do was set the camera at any angle and shoot. It was a field day for Doc Rosenthal.

PEOPLE

A great many more people are worth knowing than we suspect. People that we may at first think are tiresome and whom we would like to avoid may become, on further acquaintance, a source of pleasant interest and even of instruction and inspiration. In one of Pascal's writings we read:

"When I converse with a profound mind, or if at any time being alone I have good thoughts, I do not at once arrive at satisfactions, as when being thirsty I drink water, or go to the fire, being cold; no! but I am at first apprised of my vicinity to a new and excellent region of life. By persisting to read or think, this region gives further sign of itself, as it were, in flashes of light, in sudden discoveries of its profound beauty and repose, as if the clouds that covered it parted at intervals, and showed the approaching traveler the inland mountains, with the tranquil, eternal meadows spread at their base, whereon flocks graze and shepherds pipe and dance."

TIME

Perhaps the most satisfying experience in all life and nature is the change that time brings. Suppose things today were going to be the same a year or ten years from today? Suppose there were no such thing as change and the smoothing, softening effects of time. Suppose time did nothing to one's mind and emotions, what a tragical world this would be. The same Pascal, quoted above, says also:

"Time heals all griefs and dissensions, because one changes—one is no longer the same person. Neither the offender nor the offended are any longer themselves. It is as if one had angered a people and should revisit it after two generations. They are still the French, but not the same Frenchmen."

WHICH RACE?

There are many profound opinions about the races of mankind. There are educated people who think quite definitely that one race is a great deal better than another. Or if they are not dealing in races they think the men and women of one particular nation or groups of nations is smarter than all others. There is a great deal of talk, but the evidence so frequently kicks over the argument that it is best not to be too sure. One of the greatest of modern philosophers is Henri Bergson. He is called a Frenchman. His father was a Polish Jew who emigrated to England. There is doubt whether Napoleon was more French or more Italian. Some of the great thinkers of the world trace their ancestry through a mixture of nationalities and races.

Penn State Moves "On To Penn" Today

Class Rooms Are Deserted As Lions Prepare For Battle With Penn

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., Oct. 19.—Grimly determined to repeat their victory of last year the entire Penn State grid squad cheered by thousands of students embarked this morning for Philadelphia, where Saturday afternoon they will again meet the University of Pennsylvania at Franklin field in a contest which will determine the position of the Nittany Lions in this year's football world.

Wednesday night the men of the college put on one of the football rallies for which Penn State is justly famous. They put it on as only Nittany valley institution knows how to put it on and the result showed in Thursday afternoon's grid practice. The Lions snapped out of it and for the first time this season they showed the fighting heart, which for more than a quarter century has so characterized teams from the Nittany mountain district.

While Penn State is not favored to stand much of a show with the heavier and faster University of Pennsylvania team, yet like last year they go to Philadelphia hoping, and like last year they do not expect to return defeated. The Penn game is always the turning point of Penn State's season.

Class rooms are deserted this afternoon. Practically the entire student body decided to cut out the remaining few hours before the fracas. Saturday has been declared a holidey so that the Penn State students may go to Franklin field to watch the Lions do battle and to cheer them on to victory.

Tells Why Voting Machine Operator Failed To Appear

Mystery over the failure of Miss Lula Mosby to appear with a voting machine at the court house this week has been cleared in a letter received by Mrs. Belle A. Taylor. Soon after Miss Mosby had telephoned Mrs. Taylor on Monday, she was taken suddenly ill, and could not keep her engagement. A demonstration may be given here at some future time.

Associated Charities Work Among Destitute Is Revealed

"Help others to help themselves" might well be a good slogan for the work that is being done by the Associated Charities of this city, for that is what this organization aims to do, and all its efforts are spent in that manner. They have given help to a great number the past year, and are annually increasing the scope of their work and amount of help given. Believing also in prevention more than relief and cure, the faithful workers of this organization have done themselves proud in this respect.

Destitute mothers left with their dependent children, frequently numbering eight in a home, without the bare necessities of life and with no means of obtaining them; families left without means of support where the bread-winner has been taken away; families where the mother had deserted; some where the father had gone, leaving nothing but starvation or worse in their wake, typical examples of the heartbreaking cases to which this institution has rendered relief and has helped in building up the morale to a place where they might take their place in the world as respectable citizens.

The report following does not show the human side of the work that is being done, but is a sure cure for skepticism to those who will but take the time to read it over and think for a moment.

21 families benefitted during the year.

Baby clinic conducted and help extended. The infant mortality rate is the lowest in Lawrence county than any county in Pennsylvania, reports indicate. This is gratifying to the Associated Charities, as this organization has specialized in infant care through its clinics.

Charitable work of this institution includes: 153 families aided, 675 persons given help, 587 garments furnished, 27 pairs of new shoes supplied, 358 pairs of new hose given, 352 used garments sent out, 40 loaves of bread supplied, 221 baskets of groceries furnished, 31 tons of coal distributed.

Eight nationalities were included in the people helped by this institution.

Combined with the Associated Charities is the Lawrence County Tuberculosis Society, the two working together as one, as their work is of such a nature that it overlaps, especially in the relief work.

The work of these two combined agencies for good is very worthy and is directly beneficial to the community at large, for without the constant vigilance of the Associated Charities and the Lawrence County Tuberculosis Society the pitiful crop of stunted and misshapen minds and bodies would soon be staggering in size—a load far too heavy for the citizens of the city to bear. It is the preventative work that counts most and it is for this that a large share of the funds of the Community Chest are used. It is work that every citizen can have a part in through their subscriptions to the Community Chest.

The officers and directors of the Associated Charities are all well known business men and women and reading their names is assurance that the affairs of this agency are well managed: F. A. Hover, president; J. R. Mead, first vice president; Mrs. J. L. Stratton, second vice president; Frank Burton, third vice president; J. G. Nothdurft, treasurer; Dalla A. Glenn, executive secretary of the Lawrence County Tuberculosis Association, and Anna Gilliland, executive secretary of the Associated Charities. The board of directors are: R. A. McKinney, Mrs. C. A. McCready, F. A. Hover, Mrs. J. L. Stratton, T. A. Gilkey, Dr. C. C. Green, J. G. Nothdurft, Mrs. Frank W. Smith, Frank L. Burton, J. R. Mead and Miss Anna Gilliland.

Forest Fire Tower Guard Says Bears Steal Water From Stairs Of Tower

(International News Service)

KANE, Pa., Oct. 19.—Residents of this section will welcome the opening of the bear season on November 1, so they can go out and take a pot shot at bruin without fear of the law.

Bears in this section are becoming decidedly pestiferous, according to the testimony of farmers and woodsmen. The latest complaint comes from John Smatt, on guard at the Kinzua forest fire tower near here.

Smatt is puzzling out some way to catch the bears which nightly steal up the tower stairs and drain his water bags of their precious contents. The steel tower is sixty feet in height, but the bears clamber almost to the top, using the spiral stairway.

Carl Benson, of Mount Jewett, game protector, is kept busy settling claims of farmers in the county who report their sheep flocks and bee hives are being ravaged by bears.

BUYS HOME FOR HARDING RELICS

MARION, O., Oct. 19.—Purchase of the George B. Christian home by the Harding Memorial association was announced here today by Hoke Donithen chairman of the executive committee. The property which adjoins the home of the late President Harding probably will be used as a museum for Harding mementoes now located in the Harding home which the association owns.

It is expected that the Harding home will be restored soon to its condition at the time of its occupancy by the Hardings. The household furniture now owned by the Memorial association is to be returned to the home and placed in the same order as it was during the famous "front porch" campaign in 1920.

UNGRATEFUL DEER KICKS ITS RESCUER

ROCHESTER, Pa., Oct. 19.—Mrs. Lyon McCandless is suffering from cuts and bruises and her husband's automobile is badly damaged as the result of their efforts to minister to a deer the machine struck on a highway near here. McCandless placed the injured deer in the tonenau to turn it over to a game warden. The animal suddenly began kicking. Mrs. McCandless receiving the blows. The deer battered the car considerably before it finally jumped from the machine and escaped into the woods.

Gilfillan Home; Gives No News

Makes No Statement On Contract Award For New Church Of Building Permit

"No, there is nothing definite yet", was the statement made this morning by J. Clyde Gilfillan, local contractor, when he refused to be interviewed concerning the letting the contract and the building of a new home for the First United Presbyterian church.

Mr. Gilfillan has just returned from a three day business trip during which time a building permit was issued to his company for a $65,000 structure to be located on the site of the old church on North Jefferson street. Removal of the top soil at the new church site, on the corner of Albert and Clen-More Boulevard is also started.

It is stated at authoratative sources that the letting of the contract by the church board is connected with the sale of their North Jefferson street property.

The Story Of The Hawaiian Islands
Americans In Hawaii

Registered U. S. Patent Office.

IN 1796, THE CONQUEROR, KAMEHAMEHA I, BROUGHT THE ISLANDS OF THE HAWAIIAN GROUP UNDER THE RULE OF A SINGLE KING BY A SERIES OF BRILLIANT VICTORIES. KAMEHAMEHA DIED IN 1819, AND WAS SUCCEEDED BY HIS SON LIHOLIHO, WHO TOOK THE TITLE KING KAMEHAMEHA II.

THE NEW KING WAS VIGOROUS AND PROGRESSIVE. IN 1820 HE ABOLISHED THE WORSHIP OF IDOLS AND THE MYSTERIOUS SYSTEM OF "TABU". THESE REFORMS WERE A GREAT ADVANCE IN THE CIVILIZATION OF THE ISLANDS.

IN THE SAME YEAR A BAND OF AMERICAN MISSIONARIES SAILED FROM BOSTON IN THE BRIG "THADDEUS". AFTER A VOYAGE OF FIVE MONTHS, THEY REACHED HAWAII AND WERE WARMLY WELCOMED BY THE KING AND HIS PEOPLE. THE NATIVES WERE EASILY CONVERTED AND SOON MOST OF THEM HAD BECOME CHRISTIANS.

HONOLULU, ON THE ISLAND OF OAHU, BECAME THE SEAT OF GOVERNMENT. WHALING VESSELS AND TRADING SHIPS FROM THE UNITED STATES FREQUENTED THE PORT, AND BEFORE LONG HONOLULU WAS A FLOURISHING TOWN WITH A LARGE COLONY OF RESIDENT AMERICAN AND EUROPEAN MERCHANTS AND TRADERS.

New Castle-Westinghouse Battle Saturday

Many Good Grid Games To Be Played Saturday

Major College Grid Teams Face Acid Tests In Battle On Saturday

Picking Champion This Year In Various Sections Is Tough Task

By DAVIS J. WALSH
Sports Editor International News Service

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Quietude, Webster wrote, is the state or quality of being quiet; repose; tranquility; rest. Then he went to the telephone and gave his story to a modern rewrite man and, when it finally saw the light of day, he was surprised to learn that quietude is the thing one won't get on Saturday anywhere in the vicinity of a pair of goal posts. This, it might be mentioned, means approximately everywhere, thus narrowing the situation down considerably.

Anyhow, football comes up for a big league trial this week for the first time this season. It has been out on option with Walla Walla and Hokus Pocus and now it suddenly is on the major time, with crowds and stakes increased accordingly. The transition from minor to major engagements on Saturday is more abrupt than at any time in the writer's memory. In only one line of inquiry is it possible that one can't go wrong and that is in naming the so-called little games. There isn't any.

Good Games on Coast.

The haste with which the 1928 season is getting to a climax is best realized by the fact that California and Southern California are meeting at Berkeley. To the Golden Bear, Stanford alone is a more significant opponent than U. S. C. to the latter, significance being with the Golden Bears and ends when and if it beats them. This is quite an issue to be contesting as early as the third Saturday in October but the game, far from being unique in this respect, is just a prominent example. The day has more issues than the Liberty loan.

Perhaps as interesting as any will be the meeting between Georgia Tech and Notre Dame at Atlanta, since it will give us a line on southern football in relation to the rest of the country, the latter being very prominent on Notre Dame's schedule. The Harvard-Army game at Cambridge is another focal point because the latter always is good and Harvard seems to be getting that way, after slight delay of maybe ten years. The Army's performance is interesting because it is playing one of those "rest of the country" schedules, too.

The new Big Six conference in and adjacent to the Missouri valley will stand plenty of watching this weekend. Probably as strong as any set of teams in the country, it will have a chance to prove something definite when Nebraska and Syracuse, highly qualified sectional representatives, have at it at Lincoln. Missouri will get a real test of the speed they say it has in its meeting with Iowa State and, if the Tigers really intend to dominate the situation out that way, they will do well to start dominating with this one or turn their attention to something less precarious.

Alabama Vs Tennessee.

Speaking of tests, perhaps Alabama, apparently headed back toward sectional affluence, will be forced to expose its hand against Tennessee and, before I get off this subject entirely, I would like to mention the fact that Illinois, 1927 champion of the Big Ten will play Indiana at Champaign. Indiana beat Michigan by a touchdown but I'm not sure whether this will mean anything by 1932. At that, any conference game is a tough number for anybody and so we must look with pointed inquiry at Ohio State until the final returns are in.

The Buckeyes are playing Michigan and ordinarily this would be a game of games out that way. As it is, it merely means that Ohio State must win it or lose caste accordingly.

That approximately is the case with Minnesota against Chicago, Pennsylvania against Penn State and Wisconsin against Purdue. The opponent in each case has been defeated, which means that even a tie score will lose the ball game, in effect, for Minnesota, Pennsylvania or Wisconsin.

Natural, geographical and conference rivals will meet in the following games: Bucknell vs Lafayette, Carnegie Tech vs W. & J., Dartmouth vs Columbia, Yale vs Brown, Alabama Poly vs Mississippi, Centenary vs Baylor, Drake vs Grinnell, Kansas State vs Kansas, Oregon vs Washington, Southern Methodist vs Rice, Texas Aggies vs Texas Christian, Tulane vs Vanderbilt, and Washington State vs Oregon Aggies.

A large occasion? If it was any smaller, the Grand Canyon of the Colorado would have a rival.

Cross Country Team Is Named

Will Run At Grove City Saturday Prior To Football Game

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Oct. 19.—Nine cross country men were chosen yesterday to make the trip to Grove City Saturday morning for the Grover-Westminster distance race to be run as a preliminary to the football game between the two schools.

Coach Graham selected the men for the team on the basis of showing made in the trial runs during the last two weeks. While the United Presbyterian harriers were not in shape for the opening meet with Allegheny two weeks ago, due to the fact that they had but seven days of preliminary practice, they are now in the best mid-season form and should give a good account of themselves.

The men who will represent the Blue and White are Captain Byers Kings, Cooperstown; Elmer Myers, Sharon; James Smalley, Elizabeth; Robert Wallace, Coraopolis; Edwin Anderson, Mars; Ross Ellis, Jamestown; Andrew Perrine, Jackson Center; David Myers, Sharon, and David Findlay, Ben Avon. Student Manager John Trevaskis of Turtle Creek will accompany the team.

Good Games In Store For Fans At Scotland Lane This Afternoon

GAME WILL START AT FOUR O'CLOCK

Followers of the Union High school football squad are assured one of the best games of the season when Union's blue and white gridders tackle the spirited New Wilmington high school squad at Scotland Lane this afternoon at 4 o'clock. Both teams are free from defeat as yet this season.

Coach Burnham of Union stated that he is a trifle afraid of overconfidence among his players this afternoon. However it is hoped that this will fail to show up in the contest. In last year's New Wilmington-Union fray the upper figure in their favor. They hope to repeat this again tonight, but reports received here state that the college town gridders are in the best of condition and expect to wage a teeth-and-nail battle.

The possible lineup for Union's team tonight was mentioned by Burnham. Lanigan and Clark will be placed at ends; Morrison and Augustine at tackle; Stockman, Wallace and Petrowicz at guards and Captain Rech at center. The backfield will include Chill, Thompson, Schiek and Jawarski.

The game tonight will be the last until Friday November 2 when Union will meet the strong Hickory high team of Sharon, champions of Mercer county on Union's field.

New Castle Faces Worthy Opponents

New Castle High Football Team Faces Acid Test Tomorrow; Both Teams Are Undefeated And Strong Contenders For Honors; Pittsburghers To Seek Victory Here; Coach Bridenbaugh Prepares For One Of Hardest Games On Schedule; Game Will Start At 2:30 O'clock

By "BUGS" WALTHER

WESTINGHOUSE High school football team of Pittsburgh, undefeated, strong contenders for the W. P. I. A. L. championship, will invade Franklin field, this city, Saturday afternoon to battle the New Castle High team. The game is scheduled to start at 2:30 o'clock.

Pa Newe's football dish holds a very choice morsel for tomorrow. When two undefeated grid teams clash there is bound to be some lively football displayed. A setback for either team on the "morrow" means elimination from further consideration by the league moguls. Right now both schools rank high in the scholastic realm of this section of the state.

Both coaches realize the vast importance attached to the contest about to be enacted here. Barring injuries and "lucky breaks", the football populace of this domain will gaze at two topnotch gridiron machines. New Castle concluded training this afternoon. Westinghouse, after a short workout, rested until early Saturday morning, when they start the trek to Lawrence county.

Look for Battle

Coach Philip H. Bridenbaugh has instructed his warriors to be on the lookout tomorrow for one of the stiffest games on the schedule. The Pittsburgh team is given a high ranking in the valley district and they have an eye peeled toward the fond trophy cup emblematic of the scholastic supremacy of western Pennsylvania.

New Castle High football team has won four straight games, and quite naturally an air of over-confidence prevails in the red and black camp. Being just a little too "puffed up" has spelled doom to many a fine grid combination in high school and college alike.

"The playing of the Westinghouse team is the acid test for us," is the exact quotation of Coach Bridenbaugh.

New Castle has met one other W. P. I. A. L. team, Bellevue, and that game stands on the record books as a victory. In registering the second triumph the locals are going to find the task a very different and a most difficult one.

Visitors Seek Victory

Every high school team in the Pittsburgh district harbors a keen desire to be the one to drag the powerful New Castle team from their high pinnacle. For the past five years every team that steps out on the greensward of Ben Franklin High field has had a task to perform that seemed like scaling the wall of China.

Westinghouse High will make their initial appearance at Franklin field tomorrow. A good showing is the best of advertising. The Silver Lakers will be out there trying to win a place on the New Castle card next year and also to endeavor to keep New Castle from winning the 1928 title.

Coach Burton has drilled his team all week in the aerial department. Scouts sent here to watch New Castle in the recent games hurried back to Pittsburgh with tales of a clever forward passing system that must be throttled. Burton is clever and he will not be caught napping. It was quite noticeable in the Westinghouse-Indiana game last week that the aerial attack was most prominent.

Bridenbaugh Awake

To trap the "foxy" Bridenbaugh in his lair is the desire of Coach Burton, but Philip, as he was labeled many years ago, is going to be very wide awake when the time comes. Several new plays have been given the New Castle team this week. A good football team has a wide assortment of "tricks". It is football when the opposition expects a pass and the opposing player skirts through tackle or sweeps around the end.

New Castle is blessed this year with a set of backfield men that bear "triple threat" names. Sillman, the quarterback, is a keen football field general, can carry the ball and is quite adept at forward passing. McAuley and Fernati are the speed boys and both figure nicely in the aerial attack. DiCarbo, Shaffer and Harper do the biggest part of the heavy work, or line plunging. Shaffer is also a fine forward passer and is one of the best punters on the team.

To match the prowess of the New Castle "Galloping Ghosts" Coach Burton will counter with Ware and Matroney, two fine halfbacks, and Ken Ormiston, a big, husky line plunger. Klotz is the Westinghouse signal barker and is reputed to be good. Ormiston has been a consistent ground gainer so far this year for Westinghouse and they are expecting great things of Kenneth when he takes a jaunt through the Lawrence countians.

Ware and Matroney will bear watching. Both boys are clever broken field runners and elusive to a very great extent. Matroney especially has a deceptive way of running and is hard to tackle.

Linemen About on Par

The respective linemen for the big game tomorrow shape up rather evenly. New Castle will present an array of "beef" that weighs in around 168 as an average. Westinghouse will not tip the scales quite that high. It is said that the Pittsburgh team supports a forward wall of about 162 pounds.

Quite a lot has been written about Mayberry, the fleet Westinghouse left end. He is fast and a deadly tackler. New Castle will present Tony Ostrosky to Westinghouse, and the local terminal guardian has had few equals in scholastic competition. A stiff battle is looked for.

Two New Castle players may not see action in the Westinghouse game. Merle "Red" McIntosh and Robert Dinsmore are now on the injured list with badly sprained ankles, and there is some doubt whether either of them will get into the contest. Sillman, Mooney and McAuley have recovered from injuries and colds and are ready for action tomorrow.

Faculty Manager Ralph H. Gardner today announced the officials for the game tomorrow as follows: Referee, Fry (Pitt); umpire, Robb (Penn State); head-linesman, Harr (Geneva).

Neither coach was willing to give out a first string line-up for Saturday, but the temporary line-ups were announced as follows:

New Castle		Westinghouse
Ostrosky	L. E.	Mayberry
Cuba	L. T.	Patterson
Howley	L. G.	Hil'
Ciccone	C.	Durso
Mooney	R. G.	DeMarchi
Alexander	R. T.	Reilley
Craft	R. E.	Burkholder
Sillman	Q. B.	Klotz

McAuley or Fernati	L. H.	Matroney

Grovers Ready To Play Westminster

Westminster At Grove City Saturday For Homecoming Day Attraction

GROVE CITY, Pa., Oct. 19.—Coach Berry's Grove City College eleven is all set for its first district test here tomorrow afternoon, when the Crimson entertains Westminster College on Ketler field. It is Homecoming Day at Grove City College, and many former students are expected to witness the resumption of athletic relations between two schools whose rivalry has been long-standing.

Berry shook up the Crimson line-up for the Carroll game last week, with good results. Other changes were indicated in the practice sessions this week, when various combinations were tried out. Weidman, whose play at end has been outstanding for three years, may start at tackle, a position in which he performs well. Munson, a yearling, will see plenty of action at the fullback post.

Long drills featured this week's preparation for the invasion of the Westminster gridders. Crimson coaches are still dissatisfied with the progress of the squad, and warnings have been issued that tomorrow's contest will be a stiff assignment. Westminster always rises to unsuspected heights against Grove City and Coach Berry has impressed his squad with the necessity of giving their best efforts.

Grove City will be able to muster full strength for tomorrow's engagement. Injuries have dealt lightly with the Crimson squad in the two games played to date, and every player will be available.

DESPONDENT WORKER ENDS LIFE BY SHOOTING

HUNTINGTON, Pa., Oct. 19.—While his family were absent, Harvey McAll, 29, a moulder, killed himself instantly by sending a load of shot through his neck. Balancing the shotgun under his chin, he pulled the trigger with his foot. Illness is assigned as the cause.

Buchanan Has Faith In Jack

Believes Katkish Will Cause Plenty Of Trouble For Firpo

JIM BUCHANAN who recently acquired Jack Katkish, an American of Croatian parentage, believes that the Pittsburgher will cause plenty of trouble for Henry Firpo, of Louisville, when they answer the bell in a ten round bout at Jolly Bowl, Monday night.

According to Buchanan, the Pittsburgher owns a wallop equal to almost any welterweight in the game and points out that his first ten professional victories were knockouts. His most recent bouts have been with fairly good welterweights.

For instance, he has fought Bobby Richardson, Young Saylor, Rudy Ceder, Tony LaRose, Cuddy De Marco, Jack Zivic, Johnny Carey and others who have reputations in their home vicinities. Of the foregoing Firpo has only met one, La Rose.

Katkish Is Slugger.

Katkish is a slugger and according to those who have seen him in action, he is a bear if he happens to get the jump on an opponent. In this regard he is like Firpo who fiddles around until he gets an antagonist going and then he becomes a decidedly vicious fighter.

THERE is a volume of interest in the semi-final as Joey Goodman turned in a victory in his only fight here while Jack McFarland proved a hero in defeat after going down before Johnny Datto. The Filipino, however, is apt to tumble anyone he hits so down went Jack.

Their six round go will follow a six round bout in which Mickie Dugan battles Bud Bollender. Tuesday night Mickie gave Joe Mills, of Pittsburgh, a boxing lesson at Canton. In his last two appearances in the city of New Castle Bollender turned in impressive victories.

Whether Bud can step along with Mickie remains to be seen. They will step forth after Elmo the Mighty (Clark) takes on Mike Sala in a four round fight. The first battle will be fought by Johnny Francis, Steubenville, and Tom O'Leary of Wilkes-Barre.

Arrange Ventilation.

It is reported the ventilating system will be working Monday night. Smoking has been tabooed by the state commission as the bowl has been enclosed. Several prospective judges have announced an intention of applying for licenses here.

ERNIE PAGE, referred to jocularly as the "Black Walnut" is not finished with the glove game, it is said and before long will make another effort to please his supporters. Last Monday night the big colored boy fell victim to Elmo.

He says that Kid Stage Fright rather than Elmo's grimaces plus socks whipped him. Ernie lacked aggressiveness and his knee stops caused Referee George Chip to stop the bout. His wind was bad but he still believes he can please his supporters.

ROY MINTEER, the sorrel top from the South Side, is anxious to battle again. He fought a great fight with Young Itovino at the Jolly Bowl several weeks ago. Before the fight, fans who had heard of Itovino picked Minteer to pass out early.

We told them that they could look for a good fight and that Minteer would prove a little tougher than they expected and believed that he stood a good chance of beating Itovino, a southpaw. The fight proved our contention. Minteer is always willing to battle.

IT LOOKS very much as though Jimmie Dime and Paris Kid Cangie have come to the parting of the way—publicly as Cangie entered the ring last Monday without Jimmie as his adviser and in fact the Old Master didn't train him for the bout.

For years the pair have not been in agreement and about a year ago Cangie went to New York and though he had a contract with Dime fought under Leo Flynn's banner. He returned to New Castle and was signed to fight at the Bowl.

Frankie Ross and Larry Keough went into his corner while Dime sat along newspaper row. Dime gave Cangie no advice and the Paris Kid didn't gaze at Dime. Naturally Jimmie felt that he was getting the worse of it and Cangie likewise.

In signing the fighters Cangie was paid a certain flat sum and Jimmie, as his manager, was also paid. Cangie was not in condition and the judges and referee gave the fight to Fitzgerald. It is not known now if Fitzgerald and Cangie will meet again unless the boxer and manager adjust their differences.

IT IS reported that Mickie Solomon, brought out by Eddie Weygant, will not dally in the future with the boxing gloves. Mick' went under an operation for appendicities a few months ago and this may be the reason for his reported decision.

He looked fairly good for a youngster and he was stricken at the very time his fighting began to attract notice. Very few fighters succeed after an operation for appendicitis. Ad Wolgast, former lightweight champion, never got over his.

Westminster Eleven To Meet Grove City Team On Saturday

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Oct. 19.—Despite the rains of the week, Coach "Dike" Beede's Westminster College football team has been practicing long each day in preparation for the Grove City contest at Grove City tomorrow afternoon.

With several changes in the personnel of the team, Beede has centered his attention on the problem of stopping the Grover forward passing attack. In all probability the team that starts against Coach Berry's outfit tomorrow afternoon will be somewhat heavier than that starting the first three contests of the year.

The members of the United Presbyterian squad are in fighting fettle as the time approaches for the game.

"Dukes" Will Play Loyola Saturday

Coach Layden Drills Duquesne Team For Home Game Saturday

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Oct. 19.—After registering Western Pennsylvania's biggest surprise in taking the measure of W. & J. at Washington, Elmer Layden's Dukes are preparing for Loyola college of Baltimore. The Dukes meet Loyola at Pittsburgh and are sure of packing them in. There is only one casualty on the list, that is Doggo Burns, who has a bad ankle which will keep him out of the coming contest.

The Duke's victory makes them about the most colorful eleven in and around Pittsburgh. They demonstrated the kind of foot-ball that the crowd likes. Their triumph differed from most upsets in that they finished strong. Their first score came in the second quarter. After registering the marker, they continued to play the Presidents off their feet up till almost the end of the game.

The fact that the two schools are renewing athletic relationships dating back many years has put a new spirit into the blue and white team. While the Grovers are conceded to be two touchdowns better than Westminster, those who know the game claim that the revamped Westminster outfit will be hard to beat.

Two bus loads of football players, managers, cross-country runners and coaches will leave here tomorrow shortly before noon for Grove City. In addition to this group a large crowd of students and faculty members will leave at the same time on two chartered buses and in private cars.

The Westminster and Grove City cross-country teams will race over the four and one-half mile course as a preliminary to the grid game. While the Grovers were defeated by the Geneva distance men last week, they have a good group of harriers and the meet should be close.

Probable line-ups for tomorrow's classic of northeastern Pennsylvania are:

Westminster		Grove City
Forsha	L. E.	Shiring
Dombrowski	L. T.	Schultz
Dishong	L. G.	Cantoni
Boone	C.	McCloskey
Fuller	R. G.	Sofish

Three Boys Get Big Copperhead

Three young men, Russell Stewart, Ed Forsythe and Bob Young were attracting considerable attention on North Mill street, just off Washington street, last night, with a snake, which they had killed in the vicinity of Cascade Park. It was about thirty-three inches long and a copperhead, one of the more poisonous snakes found in this district.

Dempsey Thinks Sharkey To Be Next Champion

Ex-Heavyweight Champ Visits Sharkey In Boston Home; Are Good Friends

SHARKEY'S STYLE IS HARD TO BEAT

(International News Service)

BOSTON, Oct. 19.—Jack Dempsey said today that it was his firm conviction that Jack Sharkey would be the next heavyweight champion of the world.

The two Jacks had been taking an automobile ride around Boston and visiting a new home that Sharkey is building for his wife and three children. Said Dempsey:

"I regret Sharkey didn't get the Tunney bout this year instead of Heeney. Ever since I fought Jack in New York, I have felt he could defeat Gene. Sharkey has the kind of boxing style that would enable him to outscore the champion.

Stands Good Chance.

"If you have seen Tunney box, you know he holds his right hand low. Boxing in this way Sharkey, blessed with a deadly left hook, would hit him easily. If Gene tried to change his style, he would be awkward and could not hope to win.

"A weaving, bobbing fighter like Sharkey would also be a difficult target for Tunney to hit. Jack can also punch as he proved when he met me.

"Sharkey is only 26 years of age and if he attends to business he will be the next heavyweight champion of the world.

"Since our bout in New York, Sharkey has visited me several times when both have been in New York. I have enjoyed explaining to him how I get my great punching power. I am blessed with big hands and have never got them hurt. I also get every ounce of power in my body behind my blows."

Balloons Thrill Society People

Airplanes And Automobiles Are Now Passe With Smart Set

(International News Service)

LONDON, Oct. 19.—"Do you balloon?" may be asked soon over a cup of tea among those who are jaded with the thrills of fast motor-cars or mere airplanes. Efforts are now being made to revive ballooning in England, and the only obstacle is the want of a convenient gasometer.

Balloons are inflated with ordinary coal gas, and, as this is supplied at household rates and costs twice the pre-war figure, ballooning will be an expensive pleasure. It cost approximately $100 to inflate a balloon to carry four or five passengers.

The idea is being developed by the Airship club, which is associated with the Royal Aero club, a body originally formed for ballooning.

An appeal for additional members has been issued by the Airship Club committee, and is signed by Griffith Brower, Lord Cunliffe, Captain F. L. N. Boothby, A. F. de Moleyns, and C. C. Turner.

If this political excitement keeps up we may get out 50 per cent of the vote on November 6.—The Florence, Ala., Herald.

$22,000 for Him

The Boston Braves, 'tis said, cracked down $22,000 for this young fellow, Byrne James, star second baseman of the Omaha ball club and best batsman of the Western league. James smacked out 18 homers and a .406 average for the season. He is said to have received $1,000 for signing the Boston contract.

Walter's Dreams Come True At Last

By JACK SORDS
Sports Cartoonist-Writer for Central Press and New Castle News.

Within less than a year from the time that he hung up his big league glove and called quits to one of the greatest careers the majors have ever seen, Walter Johnson is back again in the big time—this time as a manager, boss of his old club, the Senators.

Toward the close of his big league mound career Sir Walter had often expressed the wish to lead the Senators. But when he was packed off to Newark, N. J., there to take charge of a minor league club, it appeared as a dim possibility, his wish of managing the Senators.

The return to the Senators will be like a homecoming to the former Fire Ball King. He spent his entire big league career, beginning in 1907, in the capital city.

N. Y. STOCKS

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Furious bidding for the high-priced speculative favorites at the beginning of trading today resulted in sharp advances all along the line, with speculative interest concentrated on the pace-setters of the past week.

A wild and riotous scramble for the speculative favorites sent prices sky-rocketing again. Montgomery Ward rushed up 19 points to 350; American International 6 points to 125; Radio 7 points to 225; Studebaker 2 points to 87-112; Atlantic Refining 3 points to 198½; American Smelting 3 points and various industrials and specialties 1 point. The mercantile stocks, coppers, oils, amusements and specialties resumed the forward movement which has been making progress since Monday morning, and many of the high-grade rails changed hands at higher prices.

The call loan rate opened at 6¼ per cent, but the supply was limited and a higher week-end rate was forecasted in Wall street.

Two Women Are Held For December Court By Alderman Mantz

Miss Catherine Klee And Mrs. W. W. Heddings Give Bail For Appearance

In the cases of Miss Catherine Klee and Mrs. W. W. Heddings, charged with violations of the prohibition laws, Alderman L. C. Mantz handed down a decision today in which he held the defendants for the December term of court.

Both gave bail for their appearance.

At the time of the preliminary hearing, the Alderman reserved his decision, as it was intimated at that time that the defendants wanted to have some additional testimony taken. As no further testimony was presented, a decision as above was rendered.

There will be nothing further done with the cases until they come up for trial at court.

HICKMAN HANGED IN SAN QUENTIN FOR GIRL'S MURDER

punishment for a crime which shocked the civilized world. He looked over and above the heads of the crowd, his neck drawn back as he started upward. He appeared to the crowd that he was about to collapse but this was only his legs crumpling under him as the trap dropped with a thud which brought exclamations from the closely grouped spectators.

The lethal parade entered the chamber a few seconds before 10:10 o'clock. James B. Holohan, tall, broad shouldered stern faced man was in the lead.

He was followed by Father Wm. A. Fleming, pastor of the Church of San Rafael, who has been spiritual adviser to Hickman. The priest, a significant figure in his black cassock, was repeating the "Litany of the Saints" for those who are about to die.

Out of Death Cell.

The Litany began as Hickman stepped out of the death cell when Father Fleming commenced speaking the words:

"Lord have mercy; Lord have mercy."

In a weak voice, Hickman responded:

"Christ have mercy."

With rapid steps the group, two guards alongside Hickman and the official executioner, Robert Hogaboom in front, walked through two wooden doors leading from the death cell to the execution chamber. All the while Father Fleming continued the Litany with Hickman making half audible responses.

As they neared the first of the 13 steps, Father Fleming spoke softly:

"All ye holy virgins and widows; all ye men and women, saints of God; be merciful."

Hickman's lips moved in response with the words:

"Intercede for me, spare me, O Lord, Graciously hear us, Lord."

By now the group were on the platform of the scaffolding.

Prepare For Execution.

Father Fleming began to pray softly again as he stood close by Hickman's side.

It seemed to spectators an eternity in itself before the grim work of placing about Hickman the various paraphernalia for the hanging was completed.

It was though only a few seconds. The warden touched Father Fleming on the arm and indicated where he was to stand. This did not interrupt the litany the priest was reciting.

The executioner placed a long black cap-like hood over Hickman's head. It fell almost to his shoulders.

Adjust Noose.

The hangman then pulled down the 5-8 inch rope which had been placed in a hanging position on the scaffold so it would not be seen by the prisoner as he walked up to the platform.

Executioner Hogaboom then placed the rope about Hickman's neck, the heavy knot directly beneath the youth's right ear. The purpose of this being to render him unconscious if the fall of some five feet and more did not instantly break his neck.

The executioner and Chas. Aiston and Fred Hogaboom, a brother of the executioner, worked in absolute harmony, their movements being clock-like in the precision.

The other guard dropped the black cap over Hickman's head and shoulders.

Drops Through Trap.

The executioner raised his right hand. It was the signal for the three men in the little box-like room on one side of the gallows. Hardly had he raised his hand when these men must have slashed at the three small cotton cords, one of which connected with a heavy iron ball which in turn released the trap through which Hickman's body shot to death.

The moment the trap was sprung one person fainted, and fell to the floor. Later Detective Dick Lucas of Los Angeles fainted.

The two prison doctors, Dr. Blecker and Robinson, waiting inside the roped square at the foot of the gibbet stepped forward as Hickman's body dangled momentarily and began to curve the motion of the rope.

Dr. Blecker put out his right hand and stopped the movement of the dead man. He then mounted a small ladder, unbuttoned Hickman's black blouse and placed a stethescope over his head.

Story of Crime

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Oct. 19.—The crime for which William Edward Hickman went to his death on the gallows—the murder of Marion Parker, 12-year-old Los Angeles school girl—is said by Los Angeles police to have been the most brutal in the history of the city.

Going to the school where Marion was a student, Hickman told her teachers her father had been injured and that he was to take her to him.

Soon after he began telephoning and sending telegrams to Perry M. Parker, warning the father that Marion would be killed unless he ransomed her for $1,500.

The girl was kidnaped on December 15, 1927. Two days later Hickman kept an appointment with Parker, took $1,500 in marked money from him, drove his automobile along the street for a block and then hurled a package from the car. It contained the torso of the kidnaped girl.

On December 17 other packages were found in Elsyian park. They contained dismembered portions of the child's body.

Hickman then began his flight northward. He reached Seattle, where the first definite trace of him was found, when he passed one of the marked bills. Hickman then doubled back to Oregon. He was captured near Pendleton on December 22.

In the Pendleton jail he confessed that he kidnaped the Parker girl but insisted that she had been killed by an accomplice.

Four days later, while enroute to Los Angeles, he confessed that he alone killed the Parker girl.

Hickman began his prolonged legal battle to save his life on January 25, 1928. His chief counsel was Jerome Walsh, youthful Kansas City attorney. Hickman entered pleas of "not guilty" and "not guilty by reason of insanity."

On February 9, he was found to be "sane and guilty", and five days later he was sentenced to be hanged on April 27. He was granted a stay of execution while the Supreme court of the state reviewed his case. The court denied his appeal and he was re-sentenced to be hanged on August 9. The date of the execution was set for October 19.

Lieutenant Governor Arthur C. James and Walter Johns, city engineer of Wilkes-Barre are also here yet. Secretary of Labor James J. Davis left Thursday evening for Sharon, Pa., to visit his father.

Rather coincidentally the oldest member of the present class which is known as the Governor's Class is one of his oldest friends, Henry Hall of Indiana, Pa., a gentleman 81 years of age. Mr. Hall started in business as a boy of 12 selling newspapers and in the intervening years has built up a printing business that is known over the entire state. He is a lifelong friend of Governor Fisher's and is one of the original "Fisher For Governor" men.

The reunion will close the degree work this afternoon when the 32nd degree will be conferred. This evening at 8 o'clock an entertainment will be presented in the auditorium and at 9 o'clock a ball will be held for members, their wives and sweethearts.

Presbyterians Pledge Support To Candidate Favoring Prohibition

Presbyterian Synod In Session At Grove City Votes Presidential Aid

Vote To Eliminate Field Executive; Will Be Handled By Presbyteries

(International News Service)

GROVE CITY, Pa., Oct. 19.—The Pennsylvania Synod of the Presbyterian church, in session here today, has adopted a resolution backing the candidacies of those political candidates who favor prohibition. The resolution, prepared by the Synod's board of Christian Education, mentioned no specific candidates.

One of the most important actions of the present convention was the adoption of a motion eliminating the office of a field executive. Work in this branch will be undertaken by the various Presbyteries without the direction of a state chief.

Dr. Ben McGemmill, philadelphia, who had served 15 years as stated clerk before he was defeated yesterday by Dr. G. B. Jones of Carlisle, was given an honorarium of $500, voted by a committee headed by Dr. Percy Burtt, of Sharon.

The Synod heard addresses by representatives of eight Presbyterian colleges in Pennsylvania, and then approved a report taking in Beaver College of Jenkintown, Pa.

at 8 o'clock on the night of October 31 and it is hoped this year that the various sections of the city will cooperate with the committee in charge to make the affair the success it should be.

Prizes will be offered for the best costumes, bands will be secured for the line of march and a judge's stand will be placed somewhere on Washington street from which the judges will decide upon the prize winners.

Further announcements of the development of the plan of procedure will be made later by General Chairman Davis.
